Experts in claim over treasure discovery

TOP historians say the Staffordshire Hoard could help rewrite the history of Anglo-Saxon England.

A TV programme hosted by Dan Snow set out the latest theories on the gold and silver treasure unearthed in Hammerwich two years ago.

Professor David Starkey said the seventh century hoard was the spoils from warring Anglo-Saxon kingdoms.

He and other historians interviewed for the half-hour programme believe the Hoard could hold vital clues to explain the conversion of the kingdom of Mercia to Christianity.

Snow believes the find has the potential to rewrite the history books and said the conversion of Mercia "marked the beginning of a new era in English history."

"The Staffordshire Hoard is helping shine a light on exactly how and when the transformation occurred," he said.

Snow visited Tamworth, capital of the ancient kingdom, as part of the BBC1 programme Staffordshire Hoard. He also visited Lichfield Cathedral to see the St Chad Gospel which dates around the same time.

Burntwood metal detecting enthusiast Terry Herbert, who made the find, was also featured along with film of the work to conserve items from the hoard.

Petition on new clinic

MORE than 500 people have signed a petition calling for a health centre at Burntwood's Swan Island.

Plans for a centre at the old Greenwood House care were shelved by South Staffordshire PCT, which will improve existing facilities at Burntwood Leisure Centre instead.

The original proposals were for a small extension to services at the leisure centre and a new development at Greenwood House.

County councillor Steve Tranter said: "We think it important to reinforce the strong local feeling that the Greenwood House site is needed."

Richard Deakin

Fresh plea on anniversary of businessman's death

POLICE have this week appealed to the public not to shield the killers of a Burntwood businessman – a year to the day since he was shot.

Richard Deakin was shot in his bed in Meadway Street, Chasetown, at around 8.10am on Monday, July 5 last year.

Detectives investigating the murder are hoping someone may come forward with information that could lead to his killers being caught. A £20,000 reward has been offered for information which leads to the arrest and conviction of those responsible.

Mr Deakin, aged 27, who ran a Walsall skip hire business, lived with his fiancée Megan and daughters, Ellie, aged five, and Jessica, three. He was alone in the house at the time of his murder.

The offenders used a black Vauxhall Corsa that was found less than a mile away in Coppy Nook Lane, off Hospital Road, Burntwood.

Detective Chief Inspector Dave Garrett, who is leading the inquiry, said: "A year on from Richard's tragic murder, we remain fully committed to bringing his killers to justice."

A chilling CCTV image shows a hooded hitman entering the back garden of Mr Deakin's home with a plastic bag concealing a gun.

He walked past the playhouse and buggies used by Mr Deakin's children before entering the house and carrying out the execution.

No-one has been charged over the murder.

Mr Deakin's mother Carol, of Station Street, Cheslyn Hay, is appealing for anyone with information to come forward. She said her son was an innocent man who adored his family.

Police think those behind the murder have links to the Wolverhampton, Tipton and Coseley areas, and they want to know why Mr Deakin was targeted.

Hannah flying high over science award

Hannah Thomas, aged 13, from Penkridge who has taken part in a Stem Project to do with science and flight

A PENKRIDGE youngster is flying high after being acknowledged for her recent science work with an official award.

Thirteen-year-old Hannah Thomas, of Penkridge Middle School, was the only pupil in her year group to be given a silver CREST award for her project on flight.

Hannah, whose dad is an aerospace engineer, produced work of GCSE standard to demonstrate how wing shape dictates whether an aeroplane can lift and fly. She spent at least 30 hours on the project over a three-month period. Teacher Gaynor Brotherton said: "Hannah is a very dedicated pupil – one of the best scientists we've ever had at the school."

Mum Alison said: "She's very methodical and very academic."

A GREAT WYRLEY resident has complained that litter louts from a nearby high school are making an eyesore of fields next to his home.

Jason Wesley, of Station Road, said the problem had been going on for the past five years but next to nothing had been done to stop it.

Pupils from Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School converge on the area, on the corner of Station Road and Hall Lane, during lunch breaks and after school.

Mr Wesley said most of the litter was produced from products bought at the Tesco Express, on Walsall Road.

After contacting the school he said he was told that nothing could be done to stop pupils littering.

"They should call it Great Wyrley Performing Litter Louts," Mr Wesley said.

"The place looks worse than a tip at times and the school has admitted to me that it was a litter problem."

"But it's been going on for five years now. Enough is enough."

Blatant

South Staffordshire Council litter-picks the area once a month whilst cutting the grass but Mr Wesley, who lived on Station Road for six years, said nearby bins were always full.

He called on school staff to educate their pupils not to flout the law in such a blatant way.

"People get fined for dropping litter all the time so what's the difference here?" he

Litter on grass by Jason Wesley's home

The school grounds are also littered added. "The council needs to be here every day to be honest – it's that bad."

"Lately the situation has got embarrassingly bad and we really need the school to cooperate a bit more."

"You can't say anything to the kids either as they just tell you to pick it up yourself."

"We pay a lot of tax to get these things sorted but the fields are unacceptable at the moment."

Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School was not available to comment.

Artwork to adorn town bus shelters

BUS shelters in Burntwood are to be adorned with pop art paintings created by youngsters from the town.

Burntwood Town Council has agreed to allow the Morph4us Project to put up vinyl panels featuring artwork with an Olympics theme on its two shelters.

The youth community art project is run jointly by the county and district councils. Young artists have been working with local residents since January 2009 to create public art pieces that will form a walking gallery around Burntwood.

Agreed

The council received a presentation from the Morph4us team at their last meeting and agreed that the shelters in High Street, Church Terrace and Chase Road, Burntwood, could be used to display the pop art.

The town council is also to consult about where to site new shelters in the town. A bus shelters working group has identified four potential sites. They are: Bridge Cross Road, outside Chase Terrace Technology College; Cannock Road, Chase Terrace; Milestone Way, Chasetown and Chase Road, Summerfield.

Meanwhile new artwork has been installed on the side of The Old Mining College, in Queen Street. It features fingerprints from 500 local people.

Woman is hit by car

AN elderly woman was taken to hospital after she was knocked down by a car in Cannock.

The accident involving a Vauxhall Corsa happened in Crab Lane, near the junction with Winchester Road at 11.15am last Wednesday (June 29).

The pensioner, whose injuries were not life threatening, was taken by ambulance to New Cross Hospital.

Witnesses should contact police on 0300 123 4455.

School plans donkey rides

DONKEY rides are planned at a Cannock school as part of its seaside topic.

Year Two pupils at Moorhill Primary in Pye Green Road have been learning about the seaside this term. Instead of making a visit to the seaside, teachers have arranged for the rides at the school fields on July 19 at 1.30pm.

MP puts heart into voluntary shop work

Aidan Burley MP with a British Heart Foundation volunteer at the charity's Cannock town centre store

CHASE MP Aidan Burley spent a morning at a Cannock charity shop to raise money for its new campaign.

Mr Burley visited the British Heart Foundation store, in Market Place, where he spent time selling badges and goods, operating the till and sorting out stock.

As well as helping out in the store, the MP was there to raise funds for the charity's latest campaign Big Hearts wear Little Hearts, which aims to raise awareness of heart problems in children and young people.

He managed to collect £25.95 for the campaign in just a few hours.

Mr Burley said: "I was delighted to help out at the British Heart Foundation shop and help raise awareness and money for the campaign.

"It is sometimes easy to forget that heart problems can affect children and young people just as much as older people, so it is important we do all we can to help find cures and treatments."

The charity shop has been open for over 20 years. It has three paid members of staff, but its army of over 44 registered volunteers help keep the shop running smoothly.

All the money raised in the store goes towards the British Heart Foundation's research into cures for heart conditions.

Support

Mr Burley said: "I would like to pay tribute to the large number of volunteers here in Cannock Chase and across the country who give up their time to help run and support British Heart Foundation shops like this one in Cannock.

"Charity shops would simply not be able to operate and raise such vital funds if it weren't for the generosity and time of volunteers.

"I would encourage anybody who can spare a little time to do so and help make a real difference to people's lives."

Supermarket names RNLI as its charity

A CANNOCK supermarket has chosen the Royal National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI) as its charity partner for the next 12 months.

Sainsbury's Cannock store, at the Orbital Retail Centre on Voyager Drive, announced the RNLI as its chosen good cause after customers voted for their preferred charity in May.

During the next 12 months the charity will benefit from money donated through the store's fundraising efforts as well as volunteering.

RNLI representative Alun Thomas said: "We're really excited to be partnering with Sainsbury's Cannock over the next 12 months and would like to thank everyone in the community who voted for us.

"We will be planning fundraising activities with the store colleagues in the coming weeks and we hope that customers will support the store's fundraising efforts in the coming months, to help save lives at sea."

The store launched the partnership with RNLI by placing collection buckets on the new bank of checkouts on Monday (July 4).

Rob Hillman, Sainsbury's Cannock store manager, added: "RNLI is such a worthy local cause and we're pleased and proud to be supporting it over the next 12 months.

"We'll be letting our customers know of our fundraising plans and we hope they can join our colleagues in helping to support them.

Sainsbury's local charity partner initiative is now in its third year having been launched in May 2009.

Summer activities at centre

MARTIAL arts, zumba and weekly trips are on offer during the school summer holidays in Penkridge.

Between 10am and 4pm from July 28 to September 2, Penkridge Leisure Centre in Cannock Road is offering the programme for children aged from five to 13.

There will be a theme day each week, while sports courses include archery, dance, street cheer, gymnastics and trampolining.

A weekly trip is available for children aged eight and above each Wednesday and include an aerial ropes adventure, canoeing and kayaking and a visit to Wolf Mountain. Swimming sessions will be available between 10am and 12 noon each day. Book through reception on 01785 714152.

Stuntmen are set for action

A STUNT show with monster trucks, quad bikes and motorcycles visits Cannock this weekend.

Scott May's Daredevil Stunt Show will be at Longford Park on Sunday, July 8 at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 for adults and £6 for children.

Consultation period launched on draft legislation Views on council's sex clubs policy are sought BUSINESSES and residents throughout Cannock Chase can have their say on a draft policy on sex establishments.

New legislation has been brought in by the Government to control and regulate places such as lap dancing clubs.

Cannock Chase Council has agreed to adopt this legislation and has produced the draft policy on sex establishments.

The authority is now holding consultation over the draft, the focus of which is on sexual entertainment venues. It is also intended to apply to sex shops and sex cinemas. It is already a requirement for sex shops and sex cinemas to be licensed. There is currently one sex shop within the Cannock Chase district. There are no sex cinemas.

The adoption of the new provisions means that sexual entertainment venues such as lap dancing clubs will also be required to apply for a licence if they offer such entertainment in excess of 11 times in any 12 months.

There is currently only one venue within the district which offers this type of entertainment.

The council is inviting comments from local residents, businesses and other interested parties about this draft policy.

The consultation period runs until August 19 and written comments should be sent to Steve Shilcock, head of environmental health or by e-mail to licensingunit@cannockchase.gov.uk

A copy of the draft policy can be found on the council's website.

Regulate

Councillor Janos Toth, deputy leader of Cannock Chase Council and responsible for the environment, said: "It is extremely important to have a policy on sex establishments so the council, applicants and the public have a framework to regulate these types of venues.

"A draft policy has been produced for consultation and any comments received will be given consideration.

"The final version of the policy will need to be considered, agreed and adopted by the council before it can be implemented."

Actress drops in on students

Ex-EastEnders actress Gemma Bissix with Cannock Chase High school students Alex Lloyd (aged 15), and Ben Whitehouse (13)

AWARD-winning actress Gemma Bissix went back to school to talk to young drama students and offer advice as part of a week long art festival.

Cannock Chase High last week staged its first ever Chasestef which featured graffiti artists, circus performers, a glee choir, and an actor's studio.

Former soap star Gemma, aged 28, who starred as Clare Bates in EastEnders between 1993 and 1998, before reappearing in 2008, was offering tips to the school's drama students.

The actress also played Clare Devine in Hollyoaks, between 2006 and 2009, winning two British Soap Awards.

Cannock Chase High School and headteacher Barrie Scott said Gemma got involved in the project as she was working at the Wolverhampton Grand Theatre in the comedy Busybody, along with former Coronation Street actress Tracy Shaw, playing typist Vicki Reynolds.

Chance to name a rose at festival

VISITORS to Wolseley Bridge Garden Centre have the chance to name a new rose during a forthcoming festival.

The centre, near Rugeley, is hosting a Rose Festival until July 17, offering free advice about the nation's favourite flower.

A range of rose varieties will be on display as well as tips on caring for the flowers.

Garden centre manager Ian Byrne said: "We wanted to hold a fortnight dedicated to roses to give people interested in them the chance to find out more."

Stocked

"There are only a handful of plants available this year and they will then go on to be exclusively stocked by us and our sister centres."

"During the event there will also be a third off all Tom Chambers arches and obelisks, which are perfect for growing climbing roses over, one kilogramme bags of Toprose fertiliser will be half price and there is a third off selected Royal Horticultural Society (RHS) rose scented toiletries."

The centre's supplier, John Woods Nurseries, is running the name a rose competition.

For more about the Rose Festival, call the garden centre on 01889 574884.

Demolished shops at the junction of Market Street and Uxbridge Street, Hednesford

The changing face of town is taking shape

THE face of Hednesford has started to change with the town centre's £50 million regeneration now in full swing.

Phase one, the Chase Gateway, at the Rugeley Road end of the town is due for completion in the autumn. Old shops at the junction of Market Street and Uxbridge Street have been demolished to make way for a new budget food store and four two-storey units.

The first phase will also create a 170-space car park along with seven other retail units. A new bingo club will also be built.

The second phase - Victoria Shopping Park - will follow the demolition of the old Aquarius Ballroom in Victoria Street.

A new 80,000sq ft Tesco store on stilts and a 10,000sq ft community centre to replace the Aquarius are included in the second stage along with another 640 free parking spaces.

The community centre will be above up to seven new shops.

Developers St Modwen are behind the scheme and aim to have it completed by October 2012.

New bus stands in three bays and a drill hall for the Army Cadet Force also form part of the project.

It is estimated the overall scheme covering 10 acres will lead to 600 jobs in the town.

Gallery strikes gold as Hoard tour under way

TREASURES from the Staffordshire Hoard have gone on display in the county town for the first time as the relics, valued at £3.3 million, go on tour.

More than 40 of the gold and silver items are being exhibited at the Shire Hall Gallery until July 24. They went on show last Saturday (July 2) and have since been viewed by more than 2,000 visitors.

The Seventh Century relics were discovered in a farmer's field at Hammerwich two years ago. It was the largest hoard of Anglo-Saxon gold and silver ever unearthed. The metal detector used to find them, by Terry Herbert, is also on display.

The Hoard on Tour will move to Lichfield Cathedral from July 30 to August 21 and then to Tamworth Castle between August 27 and September 18.

The exhibition will also tell how archaeologists worked in secret to unearth the treasure.

Viewed

The exhibition can be viewed for free but 45-minute slots must be booked in advance at www.staffordshire.gov.uk/hoard or call the gallery on 01785 278345. Tickets can be booked up to 4pm on the day before a visit.

Mayflower Control Ltd has been appointed to guard the Hoard during its Shire Hall stint.

Coroner issues seatbelt warning

A VAN driver who died after crashing into a tree at around 93mph could have survived had he worn a seatbelt, an inquest heard.

John Alcock, of Cheslyn Hay, hit a tree after losing control of his vehicle in Pottall Pool Road, near Penkridge, on September 5 last year.

The 46-year-old father-of-one, a service engineer, died at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, the day after the crash.

At the inquest at Cannock Coroner's Court, Andrew Heathcote, the coroner's officer said that Mr Alcock died as a result of a 'massive head injury'.

Navigated

Pc Steven Deall, from Staffordshire police said Mr Alcock had been driving a Fiat van and the road had been dry. He added that Mr Alcock had not worn a seatbelt which might have saved his life.

He told South Staffordshire coroner Andrew Haigh it was likely Mr Alcock had lost control of the van as he navigated a right-hand bend.

Summing up before reaching a conclusion of accidental death, Mr Haigh said: "Let it serve as a reminder to us all the importance of wearing seatbelts."

Talks over GPs' move

TALKS are taking place to confirm which Cannock GP practices will move to the town's new health centre once it is built.

The Stafford Road Surgery was originally lined up for the new centre to be built in Mill Street.

But practice manager Alex Thompson said that was no longer the case and the practice would remain in its present premises.

Tony Matthews, finance director of South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust said: "Although we have received notification of a change in the practices who are likely to go into the proposed new Cannock Health Centre, discussions are still ongoing between South Staffordshire PCT and local GPs."

Friends' quiz

THE Association of Friends of Cannock Chase is holding a fundraising quiz night at the Ashmole Social Club in Hammerwich, near Burntwood, on July 15. The quiz is for teams of four with a £5 entry fee.

Oliver Sharma, Sarah Asplin and Chloe Harrison-Hurd, all aged 17, of Chasetown Specialist Sports College, Burntwood who are taking part in the Tall Ships Voyage aboard the Stavros S Niarchos

Students set sail for voyage of a lifetime

THREE Burntwood teenagers are on the ride of their life as they navigate their way across the North Sea. Chasetown Specialist Sports College students Oliver Sharma, Sarah Asplin and Chloe Harrison-Hurd, all aged 17, are taking part in a 10-night sea adventure for the Tall Ships Youth Trust Voyage of Achievement.

The trip is aboard a 200 ft long brig called the Stavros S Niarchos and the route will take 48 students from Newcastle-on-Tyne to Montrose in Scotland before crossing the North Sea to Holland and then back across to the finishing point at Tower Bridge, London, next Wednesday (July 13). In the past 11 years Tall Ships has taken more than 500 youngsters on expeditions with many going on to volunteer for the Tall Ships Youth Trust charity.

Tim Law, Tall Ships Youth Trust marketing and operations director, said the Burntwood trio would undergo a life-changing experience. "A Tall Ship voyage takes people out of their comfort zone and they will find things within themselves that they did not realise were there. Tasks such as climbing the rigging or helping prepare dinner for 67 people can give young people a real sense of achievement and self-worth."

On joining the ship in Newcastle on Sunday (July 3) the students were assigned to one of three 'watches.'

Each watch will see the youngsters spend the whole of the 10-night voyage working together, living eight to a cabin and rising at 4am.

While on board students will take part in every aspect of sailing the Tall Ship, including helming, scaling the 45-metre masts to set and stow sails and navigating.

HSBC has funded the expedition. Peter Bull, head of HSBC in the Community, said: "We strongly believe in the importance of developing life skills in young people both within and outside traditional education."

Learner gets free lessons in tribute

A DRIVING instructor is to teach a learner to drive for free in memory of a Rugeley man who died in a car accident.

Helen Sadler, aged 39, who runs the Drive with Direction Driving School, offered to put one person through driving lessons in memory of Ashley Burton, who died in February 2010.

Ashley was involved in a car accident at Cannock's Orbital ring road and Helen is a friend of the 22-year-old crash victim's family.

Judith Burton, Ashley's mother, read through scores of letters to decide who would be given the free lessons.

She settled on Ross Crompton, a 20-year-old from Dudley.

Ross almost died three years ago following complications from a burst appendix.

Helen will pay for all of Ross's lessons, but his parents will still have to pay for the theory and main test.

Ashley Burton, of Breerton, died after his friend Jason Masters lost control of his three-litre X-type Jaguar on a patch of ice, crossing the central reservation and hitting an oncoming Clio and Peugeot.

Helen will be offering the Ashley Burton Memorial again next year. The next scheme will be running from March 1 2012, with a winner picked after April 15.

Hope on jobs at car site

A REDUNDANT Bridgton car garage site could be brought back to life with a new business, sparking the creation of around 50 jobs.

Commercial vehicle hire company Northgate has bought the former Motorhouse 2000 car dealership, in Mill Lane.

The site has been vacant for 12 months after Motorhouse moved to a new location in Watling Street.

Northgate plans to spend £2.5million developing the site with vehicle hire occupying the existing building in the northern part of the property and a sales subsidiary company, called Van Monster, opening in the southern area.

Northgate will employ around 40 workers and Van Monster will initially have a team of around 10.

The applicant's agent, Andy Williams, has written to John Heminsley, Cannock Chase Council's planning services manager, saying the venture will be a benefit to the area.

He said: "Northgate's investment in this part of Bridgton will no doubt be welcomed and it is hoped that this application can be expedited in order to allow for the sales operation to commence without undue delay."

Northgate operates a fleet of more than 108,000 vehicles from more than 90 sites in the UK, Ireland and Spain and hopes to get started by the autumn.

Church hosts flower display

A FLOWER arranging demonstration is being held at a Hedgesford church next week.

'Anything Goes' by Irene Bates is being held at St Peters Church, in Church Hill on Monday, July 11, from 7.30pm. Admission is £4 and refreshments will be served.

Decision on plan deferred over chemical concerns

Toxic waste fears as truck stop bid foiled

THE threat of toxic waste has stalled plans for a truck stop along the busy A5 near Cannock to be redeveloped.

Plans for the Truckers Rest at Hatherton were put on ice by councillors on Tuesday night (July 5) night because of concerns over what may have been dumped at the site when it was previously used as a landfill.

South Staffordshire Regulatory Council voted unanimously to defer the proposals and seek expert advice from the environment agency.

They heard that in 2001 the agency wrote to the council with concerns about what waste may have been dumped at the site.

According to the 2001 letter, waste from the old Cannock Gas Works could be buried beneath the site which if disturbed by development could release cyanide, heavy metals, phenols, sulphates and oxides.

Serious

There is also a fear that chemicals could spill into a nearby canal and cause environmental problems there.

Under the plans submitted by owner Constantinos Charalambous the existing buildings would be demolished and a new building created closer to the A5.

The site would also be landscaped and developed with spaces for 86 lorries and 32 cars or vans.

Councillor David Williams said the plans should be deferred and a full investigation of the site be carried out for "health and safety reasons."

He said: "These proposals will disturb the surface of the site and are going to be serious ground works. These are issues that need to be investigated before we can make a decision."

Councillor Jack Ashley added: "This is an extremely controversial site and these are pretty serious issues that need to properly addressed. We need an independent specialist organisation to do an investigation on this site."

Academy is now up and away

HUNDREDS of balloons were released at a Burntwood school to mark its conversion to an academy.

The school, formerly known as Chasetown Specialist Sports College, will now be known as the Erasmus Darwin Academy.

The academy is named after Erasmus Darwin, who lived locally 200 years ago.

The grandfather of Charles Darwin, he was very famous in his own right as a doctor, scientist, inventor, poet and philosopher.

Erasmus Darwin Academy will retain its specialism in physical education and sport.

Bernice Astling, principal of the new academy, said: "We are very proud to become an academy and we look forward to maximising the opportunities that this new status affords."

"I am very grateful for the considerable support given by staff, students, parents and governors for this new development."

"As an academy, we will join the ranks of many of the highest performing schools in England. We will build on our success to become a centre of educational excellence."

Bikers ride in to give talk at Legion branch

THE Riders Branch of the Royal British Legion are visiting the Burntwood division to give a presentation.

Members of the visiting motorcycle club will give a talk about their recent appearance on the BBC1 Documentary Wootton Bassett: The Town That Remembers.

Burntwood and District spokesman Berni Wilkins said: "We are hoping the visit will generate interest and a good attendance."

"The Riders branch of the RBL assists the families and friends of fallen servicemen and women on the repatriation of their loved ones."

The Riders branch has members as far afield as Cornwall, Scotland, Europe, Northern America and Australia.

The Burntwood branch's headquarters is at 112 Cannock Road. The visit is on Wednesday, July 13, and the talk starts at 8pm.

Blood Service rolls into town

DONORS can roll up their sleeves in Burntwood next week.

Upset as Chase is snubbed

MP Aidan Burley has criticised an independent body that advises the Government on the nation's forests after it was announced that panel would not be visiting Cannock Chase.

The panel, formed by Environment Secretary Caroline Spelman, plans to visit seven woodland areas around England. However Cannock Chase is not one of them.

Visits will instead be made to forests and woodland sites in Nottinghamshire, East Anglia, Yorkshire, Devon, the Lake District, and Wyre.

Conservative MP Mr Burley said: "I am disappointed and annoyed that the list of Panel visits should exclude Cannock Chase, an area of beauty and heritage which is at least as important as the forests listed."

"I have already contacted the panel and am arranging to meet urgently with their representative to discuss in person the issues raised by my constituents."

Mark Davis, who heads the campaign group Save Cannock Chase said the panel needed to be made aware what an asset the Chase was to the region. He is to write a letter to the panel and ask why Cannock Chase has not been included.

"It's disappointing," he said.

Free buses to Wakes fun day

A FREE shuttle bus service is being laid on for the annual Burntwood Wakes fun day on July 23.

Burntwood Town Council has arranged for the buses to run to and from Burntwood Rugby Club at The Sportsway from noon until 10.15pm.

Three vehicles – two of which can accommodate one wheelchair – will run on the route from Ogley Hay Road/Morley Road, Boney Hay via Burntwood, Chasetown and Chase Terrace. The fun day will include 30-minute shows by the National Festival Circus at 1pm, 2.30pm and 4pm.

Other attractions include magic shows, terrier racing, the Jamie Squibb Moto Cross stunt display team, craft workshop and dance troupe displays.

Older teenagers can take part in a skateboard competition.

Rugby club in floodlights bid

BURNTWOOD Rugby Club has applied for council permission to install additional floodlights at its ground in Chasetown.

Club bosses hope to install four 52ft floodlights so players can practise late at night on a training area away from the main pitch. The area is to the right of the club house and is used by a range of sporting groups.

A design statement to Lichfield District Council says: "Because the main playing area has floodlighting, during the winter months this pitch gets more use because of the night time training."

The extra lighting would mean the training area could be used throughout the year.

The club has appointed Burntwood-based Field Building Design Partnership to act as agents and designers.

New partner in estate transformation project

Jeff Sharnock (Waterloo HA), Councillor Frank Allen (Cannock District Council), Pete Bedward (Homes And Community Agency) and David Gough (Lovell)

A SPECIALIST in affordable housing has been added to the team involved in building new homes on a Cannock estate.

Lovell has been chosen by Waterloo Housing Association, part of Waterloo Housing Group, to build the 150 homes to transform Elizabeth Road on the Jubilee estate.

Lovell is adding its development expertise to the partnership between Waterloo, Cannock Chase District Council and the Government's Homes and Communities Agency.

The first phase of the for the £15million new build project has seen the clearing of vacant old properties. The project has the support of HCA funding through the Kickstart programme, aimed at high-quality housing schemes affected by market conditions.

Building work by Lovell starts next month to construct the first 50 homes by spring 2012.

A further 100 affordable and attractive properties, for both rent and sale, will follow, providing a huge boost to the area's environment and local economy.

David Gough, regional director for Lovell in the Midlands, said: "This is a wonderful opportunity to recreate this community and we look forward to working closely with local people, as well as Waterloo, Cannock Council and the HCA, in order to ensure we create a tight-knit new neighbourhood enjoying top-quality homes."

"We will build the homes in four phases so we will be in constant liaison with residents to ensure disruption is minimal."

Councillor Frank Allen, the council's housing portfolio holder, said: "I am absolutely delighted that building work is getting under way. The redevelopment is going to bring a transformation to the Elizabeth Road estate. It will be unrecognisable, with quality homes, parking, play areas and open space."

Deputy leader in pledge on overgrown sites

Council plots to bring allotments back in use

CANNOCK Chase Council's deputy leader says the ruling party has pledged to bring more allotment plots into use across the district.

Complaints have been made to the authority about overgrown sites which are said to be putting off potential users. Cannock currently has the longest waiting list for allotments in the region – with 184 in the queue to get a plot. And, it is claimed the district council is losing out on rental income and preventing would-be growers on the waiting list from indulging in the pastime.

Councillor Clive Morgan, for Cannock West, said a number of plots on St John's Close allotments had been in need of renovation for more than three years. But he said repeated requests to overhaul them had proved unsuccessful.

Search for a hero to open store

ASDA is searching for a superhero in Cannock to open its new store and shop for free. The supermarket chain is looking for a local real-life superhero who goes that extra mile for their local community or neighbours.

Dedicated to working with the Cannock community, Asda wants to celebrate the opening of its new store with the people who are already making a difference to the local community. Area manager Rebecca Passmore said: "We know that many of our customers are tireless in their efforts to support the community. That is why we want to celebrate their work and make sure that a real local superhero opens the store."

To nominate a worthy person visit <http://storelocator.asda.com/store/cannock-lichfield-road>

The winner will enjoy a £50 gift card and officially open the former Netto store in Lichfield Road store on August 2.

However they were still unused by February this year.

Deputy council leader Councillor Janos Toth, said work had since been undertaken, including the cutting back of hedges and the undergrowth.

Income

But he said three plots had been ravaged by Japanese knotweed and needed to be chemically treated.

As rents were very low, the authority had lost little in income but he conceded they had wasted a popular community facility.

"I have now requested details on all inactive allotment plots and asked how we can bring them back into use even if we have to spend over and above our annual grounds maintenance budget," said Councillor Toth.

Cool looks for schoolgirl Olivia

Olivia Wilson (aged 14) from Cannock Chase High School, with left, Beauty Therapy Trainer, Sharon Slater and Gwyneth McCormack from Positive Eye at the Cool Looks event in Stafford

A FUN beauty course was held to boost the confidence of teenage girls with visual impairments.

Olivia Wilson, a 14-year-old pupil at Cannock Chase High School, was among those receiving a makeover as part of the County Council-led initiative.

The Cool Looks for Me scheme was at the Flash Ley Centre in Hawksmoor Road, in Stafford.

The course offered basic skin care and make up techniques for girls aged from 14 to 18.

It guided the youngsters through a simple skin care and make up routine, using basic application techniques which they can easily follow at home. The course was designed by a specialist education provider and delivered by a fully qualified beauty therapist.

Councillor Mike Lawrence, for children's wellbeing, said: "This fun course helps youngsters with sight issues feel more confident about themselves."

Elderly man dies after being hit by motorbike

A PENSIONER died after being hit by a motorbike in Cannock. The victim, named as 76-year-old Eric Yardley, of Bideford Way, Longford, was flown to Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham with serious head injuries, but later died.

He was knocked down by an 800cc Triumph motorbike on the A4601 Wolverhampton Road near the junction with Wellington Drive at 12.58pm on Friday, July 1.

Police are appealing for witnesses to contact them on 0300 123 4455 quoting incident 351 of July 1.

Summer activities

CANNOCK Chase Council is planning a host of summer holiday activities as part of its Chase It! programme.

Days out include Waterworld, Drayton Manor, Shugborough, a London theatre trip, Alton Towers, ten-pin bowling, Tamworth Snowdome and West Midlands Safari Park.

Play rangers will take part in a National Family Play Day event at the Museum of Cannock Chase on July 31. The museum, in Valley Road, Hednesford, will hold art and craft workshops and there will be sports activities at Rugeley and Chase Leisure Centres.

Heartbreak over loss of 'amazing woman'

Family tributes to road crash victim

A LOVING tribute has been paid to a Burntwood couple who died in a collision with a lorry on the A5. Tony Malpass, aged 29, and his 35-year-old girlfriend Joanne Beardsmore, died in the smash on June 17.

Their Kia Rio car collided with the HGV near The Terrace restaurant at Brownhills.

In a statement issued via the police by Joanne's family, they spoke of their "heartbreak" at losing a mother-of-two who "loved life and was always helping others".

The tribute to Walsall-born Joanne, who grew up in Chase-town, was paid by her children, parents, brother and sister.

It describes the blue-eyed blonde as a "beautiful, stunning, amazing woman" who was nicknamed Diggle by her brother and sister as children, a name which stuck throughout her life.

Credit

It continued: "Joanne had two lovely children, her son who is now 15 and daughter, 11. Both children are an absolute credit to her, she loved them unconditionally and her love for them knew no bounds."

"She supported them in everything they did and coaxed and nurtured them in a way only a mother can. Her legacy will live on in her children, who have the same compassion and love that she had. Joanne loved life and was always helping others in everyday issues or consoling people who needed her. She was always in demand."

"Everyone who knew her loved her. She was a very warm, funny and happy woman and was a true inspiration to everyone. We will miss her status updates on Facebook and popping on to say 'good morning everyone' each day."

Tony Malpass, aged 29, and his partner Joanne Beardsmore, 35, of Burntwood

The family say her life was made complete when she met Tony, and they became a close and loving family unit.

The couple lived in Birch Avenue.

"Tony was a quite shy, thoughtful, very friendly and happy man who came into our lives and will stay with us forever. He supported Jo and the children 100 per cent. They were a truly loving couple whose lives were taken far too soon."

A Czech lorry driver accused of killing the couple by dangerous driving has been remanded in custody. Pavel Dolejs, aged 43, will appear at Stafford crown court on August 30.

Oldest Deacon, the Rev Joyce Stewardson (aged 71), of Heath Hayes, with youngest, Rev Jonathan Iddon (28) and the Bishop of Lichfield, the Rt Rev Jonathan Gledhill

Oldest cleric, 71, takes holy orders

A 71-YEAR-OLD Cannock woman has been ordained a Church of England deacon at Lichfield Cathedral.

Reverend Joyce Stewardson was among 19 deacons in the West Midlands and Staffordshire who were welcomed into the church at a special service.

Mrs Stewardson, who serves at St John's Church in Heath Hayes, was the oldest deacon to be ordained.

Her husband Ian was among 80 family members and friends in the congregation for the service.

She said: "It was an amazing experience."

The former pupil of Friary School, Lichfield has been a lay minister at Heath Hayes for more than 14 years. She takes holy orders a year after most clergy retire.

Mrs Stewardson added: "It's all a question of timing. I've had a calling for some time but our new vicar Leah Vasey-Saunders was probably the catalyst to do it now."

The youngest to be ordained was Reverend Jonathan Iddon, aged 28, of Tamworth.

New clergy are usually ordained as deacons and become priests the following year.

Plea for more Bloom entries

COUNCILLORS are urging even more people to enter the Burntwood in Bloom competition.

Closing date for entries is next Wednesday, July 13 with judging will take place July 19 and 20.

Entry forms can be collected from the town council office at Unit 1 Lambourne House, in Bridge Cross Road. To request a form call 01543 677166, email info@burntwood-tc.gov.uk or download a form at www.burntwood-tc.gov.uk

Age of the train as user numbers rise

THE Chase rail line between Rugeley and Birmingham has seen a huge surge in passengers with numbers almost trebling at one station.

The route, which includes Rugeley, Cannock, Hednesford and Walsall, is now showing the second highest passenger growth in the West Midlands.

The figures, released by the Office of Rail Regulation, represent a 15 per cent increase at Cannock station, 12 per cent at Rugeley Town and a massive 161 per cent at Rugeley Trent Valley where passengers rose from 20,324 to 53,028 last year.

Passengers at Cannock Station are up from 182,918 to 203,736.

The numbers, which also show a one per cent rise at Hednesford, compare 2008-09 and 2009-10.

Centro is now asking local authorities for extra money to help run the service beyond December and Cannock Chase Council's cabinet agreed to provide £27,000 over the next three years because of the line's crucial link with Birmingham.

Centro has also asked Staffordshire County Council to share the costs based on an annual combined contribution of £53,000.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, Cannock's leader for economic development and planning, said: "We're delighted and hope the trend will continue."

He said the funding package agreed by the cabinet would ensure the Chase Line service for the next three years.

"This is essential, as the rail service is absolutely vital to the economic growth and prosperity of the Cannock Chase district," he added.

Lib Dems had no plans to introduce parking charges for disabled

REFERENCE disabled car parking charges. I see that Labour Councillor George Adamson is up to his old tricks again, stating the those nasty Liberal Democrats were planning to introduce car parking for the disabled.

He could not be further from truth. We asked the District Council officers for a report on blue badgeholder car parking charges as we ask for every sensitive service.

It not saying we will do it, quite the contrary. It wasn't in our budget for 2010/2011 and the report only came to light on June 23 to a Labour Cabinet meeting with two options. Option 1 was to implement the charges and option 2, status quo, no implementation, which is the option we would have chosen.

How on earth could we be planning the car parking charges when a decision had not been made? I can say that a decision to charge the disabled for car parking would NOT have got through the Liberal Democrat party group, not forgetting the Full Council. It a shame Margaret Barton has been taken advantage of and used to further George Adamson's political career and the Labour party, when it was simply NOT TRUE.

If Margaret Barton and the MP would like to contact me, I will show them. Seeing that George Adamson is keen to have his photograph taken, perhaps I could have mine taken with the lady telling the truth. Councillor Adamson can attend too if he wants to to put his arguments over.

COUNCILLOR DANNY DAVIES
LIBERAL DEMOCRAT GROUP LEADER

LETTERS are welcome on any local topic. Send in your correspondence to: The Editor, Cannock & Lichfield Chronicle, 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES or email your letters to: cannockchron@expressandstar.co.uk. Names and addresses MUST be supplied in order to be considered for publication, though these can be withheld at the author's request. The Editor reserves the right to cut or not to publish.

Desire for all three parties to work together

WHEN I read Lib Dem councillor Danny Davies' letter in The Chronicle (June 23), I first thought it was a case of sour grapes. Then I read it again and noticed that he appears to have got his facts mixed up.

He said: "We looked at disabled parking and decided not to do anything."

If so, how is it that the Lib Dem budget included £129,000 to enable ticket machines to be adapted for use by the disabled? He then mentions the travel tokens for the elderly but forgot to mention that it was his party that scrapped them long before the County Council took responsibility for concessionary fares. Councillor Davies then mentions the stadium and shows no remorse for its demolition. The Lib Dems still don't realise how hurt and annoyed the vast majority of people in the Chase District are over its wilful destruction.

Labour has been in minority control of Cannock Council for only a few weeks and in that time we have scrapped the Lib Dem plans to charge the disabled to use council car parks, doubled the number of elderly tenants who can get their grass cut, started a review of the staffing structure to ensure that council tax payers get best value, agreed funding for the Chase Advice Centre and we are reviewing the shared services with Stafford Council to ensure that we are getting value for money.

One of my first actions on becoming Leader of the Council was to instruct council staff that I wanted to take a 10 per cent voluntary cut in my Special Responsibility Allowance. This is a different view to that taken by the Lib Dems who opposed all attempts to reduce allowances.

Despite our obvious differences, I want all three parties on Cannock Council to work together for the benefit of our residents and I am proposing that the other two group leaders and I have regular meetings to discuss issues facing our area to work out a common approach for the benefit of all.

GEORGE ADAMSON
LABOUR GROUP LEADER

We can't afford to let our bumblebees buzz off

NO country garden would be the same without the gentle buzz of the friendly good natured bumblebee.

These endearing insects should be welcome visitors to any garden.

Sadly these delightful and vitally important insects are all in decline. In the UK, we have already lost three species of bumblebee, two more are critically endangered and a further seven are of serious conservation concern.

We really can't allow this state of affairs to continue. We cannot afford to lose our bumblebees.

It is not always easy to recognise the different species without some knowledge and Staffordshire Wildlife Trust at Wolsley Bridge recently hosted an 'Evening with Bees'.

The talk was given by Ron

Rock, whose passion and love for bumblebees shines through, together with his factual account into the private world, lives and habitat of these wonderful creatures.

After the talk, we were served with tea, coffee and cakes, a raffle and a selection of bee friendly plants for sale.

The talk was attended by more than 40 people. All money raised was donated to The Bumblebee Conservation Trust and the SWT. After a fantastic response, Ron is planning future talks on the plight of the bumblebee.

To find out more about bumblebees and their solitary bee cousins Ron can be booked to give talks by e-mailing him at ronrock@phonecoop.coop or by calling 07563794764

Glut of buses so plenty of picture opportunities

WITH regard to the reader from Cheslyn Hay about photographing Arriva buses.

Well, here in Heath Hayes we must be very lucky. We have 14, yes 14, Arriva buses scheduled each hour along Hednesford Road.

There are three 60/X60s; two 32s and two 33s in each direction, then we have yet another two, the Midland number 23 service, making a grand total of 16 buses per hour.

I must admit that whenever I use the bus they always seem to be running ago, although with that many to choose from, if one were to go missing, it wouldn't really be noticed would it? So arm yourself with your camera and come and sit outside our library and take as many pictures as you choose to.

Another point to make about this veritable glut of buses is the proposed traffic calming measures in Hednesford Road, Heath Hayes.

The best alternative I heard yet to spending all that money on humps and chicanes is "natural calming".

The example quoted was Brownhills High Street. That is, just remove the double yellow lines from one side of the road, letting people park their cars and create "natural" chicanes. Brilliant idea.

Add to that the bus service along Hednesford Road and, bingo, there you have it. As much traffic calming as you need and all for free.

Mind you, being just a tad of a cynic, if the humps and chicanes are built, I'm sure Arriva will find a reason to reduce the service along Hednesford Road. It doesn't take many grey cells to imagine the possible disruption to normal service plus the extra wear and tear on suspensions.

And the drivers too. I guess it must be bad enough having grumpy passengers, then add to that humps and chicanes on a busy main road.

Being a truck driver, my sympathies are with the drivers, and yes, I have taken my Arriva bus pictures.

Christian Aid sum excellent

I WILL be very grateful for you, on behalf of the committee, to warmly thank the householders of Lichfield and district who supported us during the annual fundraising week for Christian Aid in May.

Through their outstanding generosity, we raised the excellent sum of more than £15,000.

I would also like to thank once again the church organisers and their faithful teams of collectors and volunteers who gave their valuable time during the week, and for ongoing support throughout the year.

One-star hygiene rating for nursery

Youngsters show off their fancy footwork

Getting into their dance moves for a dance festival at the Blake School in Hednesford are Lauren Cowley (aged 18) and George Winsor (16)

PUPILS went dance crazy during a lively afternoon at a Hednesford school. Groups showcased their fancy footwork at a dance festival at Blake Valley Technology College in Marston Road.

Youngsters from feeder primary schools joined in the fun. The festival was organised by the college's school sport co-ordinator Rose Brown to mark National Sports Week. A Mini Olympics for the feeder primary schools is being planned at Blake Valley next Tuesday July 12.

CANNOCK nursery has been given a one-star hygiene rating because of food past its sell-by-date and soil on a kitchen counter.

Little Friends Day Nursery, based at Elm Pentecostal Church, in Girtton Road, was rated by council environmental officers following a visit in May.

Staff were criticised for a 'lack of monitoring' after two packs of ham were found past their use-by-date, while a 'lack of understanding' was cited on why kitchen temperatures should be monitored.

The report said: "On discussion with staff it transpired that the thermometers had gone missing so the refrigerator temperatures had not been monitored or recorded."

The inspector said the nursery was risking food contamination by having plant pots and soil on a worktop and painting equipment in a wash hand basin.

Part of the report said: "You are responsible for vulnerable children who are at higher risk as their immune systems are not fully developed."

It was noted that a cleaning schedule was in the place. However, it was apparent that 'food debris' had been building up around kitchen equipment.

Kitchen

The training of staff was also said to be inadequate.

The report said: "It was apparent that staff lacked understanding and awareness of what they should be doing even though an instruction sheet was found."

Nursery manager Susan Hanley said council health inspections lacked consistency as the previous visit yielded a three-star review and since then a new kitchen has been added.

She said any points raised would be remedied but added no complaints had been raised by parents, and no children had become sick as a result of hygiene issues.

Fundraiser at Potter film launch

A HOSPICE is to host a fundraising event at a Cannock cinema for the release of the new Harry Potter film.

Katharine House Hospice will be holding a movie launch event at Cannock's Electric Palace Picture house on Friday, July 15.

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part Two is the last in the series and the evening will feature a magician, refreshments and a raffle.

Amy Johnson, community fundraiser for the hospice, said: "We are very excited to be hosting this event. Local Harry Potter fans can be among the first to see this highly anticipated last film while helping Katharine House at the same time as all the proceeds will be going directly to the care of local people at the Hospice."

Tickets are £10 children and £15 for adults. Call 01785 254645 to book.

David and Anne Smith in the garden of their home in Dene Close

Scenic grounds on show for the 10th time Gardening couple open up labour of love to the public

A GREEN-fingered Penkridge couple who have lovingly tended to their garden for a number of years are opening their plot up to the public this weekend.

It will be the 10th time that David, aged 74, and Anne Smith, 68, of Dene Close, will have opened the gates to their scenic grounds as part of the National Gardens Scheme.

Members of the public are invited along on Sunday (July 10), from 11am until 5pm. As one of 3,700 gardens open across the country, the couple hope to raise funds for scheme's charities, Macmillan Cancer Support and Marie Curie Cancer Care.

Summerhouse

David said: "We have done this for many years now and really enjoy being a part of the scheme and showing off all the hard work we have put into our large, modern garden."

"Last year we welcomed around 150 people and hope for an equally good turn out this year to help raise money for some really good causes."

The garden boasts many surprises from a herbaceous area to an array of bamboos, grasses and flowers.

There is also a water feature, summerhouse and quiet seating areas for visitors to relax and enjoy the home-made refreshments.

Proceeds from the tea and cake sale will go to the couple's nominated charity, the Midlands Air Ambulance.

Entry is £3 for adults with children admitted for free.

EATING OUT

thechronicle

Like it? You'll love taste of Caribbean

The Coachhouse, in Hill Street, Hednesford

Owners Colin and Dorothy Bayliss

THE COACHHOUSE, HEDNESFORD
CURRIED goat, rice and pea, snapper fish, jerk chicken and yams. Some of the finest West Indian fare on offer – in Hednesford.

Colin and Dorothy Bayliss opened the restaurant, at the Cross Keys pub, in April, serving traditional Caribbean and English cuisine.

As Dorothy's origins lie in Jamaica, the pair opted to introduce the Caribbean dining experience and it's a gamble that appears to be paying off as the novel idea has had punters flocking to the joint.

First impressions are that the restaurant is clean and well laid out. Pictures of English and West Indian beaches adorn the walls, as well as a mock-up half St George's half Jamaican flag. Soft reggae music plays out, while the owners prove to be the perfect hosts. And the food is simply divine.

The extensive menu includes regular specials, a children's menu, vegetarian options and Sunday roast.

The couple continue to bring in new ideas and Dorothy's love and knowledge of cooking is evident. With the snapper fish, served with vegetables and rice and pea looking tempting, I was spoiled for choice as the meat platter, of chicken, pork and beef was also calling me. So I tried both.

As the restaurant is licensed, this was washed down with a pint or two of Red Stripe – what else?

Sharon and child one opted for jerk chicken, again served with vegetables, rice and pea, with the three of us adding fried dumplings to our meal.

Enjoyed

Two unadventurous children went for chicken nuggets and chips, but while the youngsters had ice cream to follow, the adults enjoyed pineapple and coconut sorbet in their shells.

The Coachhouse is open on Fridays and Saturdays from 6-10pm and on Sundays from noon to 6pm. It also caters for corporate bookings. Call 01543 428614 or visit www.coachhouserestaurant.co.uk

Prices are affordable. A summer special three-course Caribbean meal and a drink costs £15, with a children's main meal, ice cream and a drink at only £3.95. by Mark Shipp

Personal best for triathlete

Triathlete Adam Coates during his 10k run

A TRIATHLETE from Cannock has expressed his delight at an impressive recent performance at a championships in Spain.

Adam Coates, aged 23, recently competed at the ETU European Triathlon Championships and set a personal best time while finishing eighth in his category.

The Churchbridge resident has only been participating in the sport for 18 months but finished fifth in a Great Britain team trial in Rugeley to qualify for the European event.

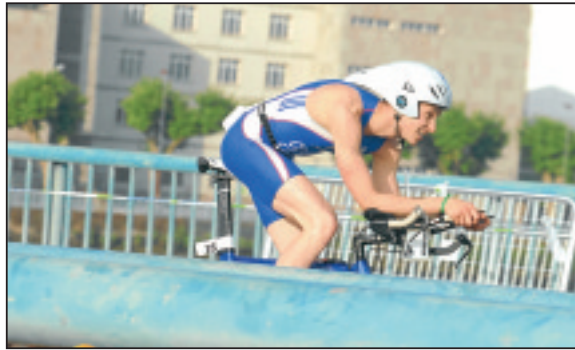

Heat

The Olympic distance course consisted of a 1.5km out-and-back route river swim, a 40km technical bike course and a 10km run in and around the undulating town of Pontevedra.

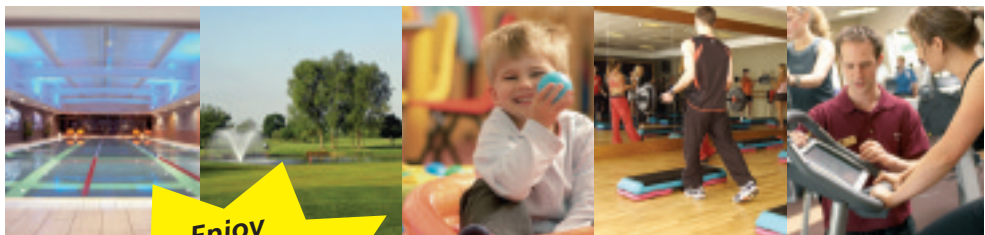

Add 30 degree heat to the mix and it was obvious to see why Adam was so pleased with the result.

"I managed a personal best and was completely blown away at the level of my progression," he said.

Adam completed the race in 2:13:22 and out of the 304 athletes was 93rd quickest.

Adam competes in one of the disciplines, a 40km bike ride through Pontevedra

Judith rewarded for valuable contribution

RUGELEY LIONS CLUB

TO conclude a very busy and successful year Rugeley Lions held their presidential handover appropriately at the "Go Ape!" barn on Cannock Chase.

The event was well attended by members from various clubs and other local charitable organisations who have worked closely with Rugeley Lions over the past 12 months.

Handing over the chain of office out-going President, Jill Burgin, thanked the members for their unwavering support throughout her time in office and stated that she had enjoyed the experience. Newly elected President Mac Singleton, in his acceptance speech, said Jill would be a hard act to follow but would endeavour to continue and extend the role of Rugeley Lions in helping those in the local community and beyond.

The opportunity was also taken to present a new award of "Friend of the Lions" to Judith Bradbury who generously gives her time to many fundraising activities and makes a valuable contribution behind the scenes.

Rugeley Lions hope to further develop their involvement in the community and would like to hear from anyone wishing to be involved with the club's various projects. Call 08458332904 or visit www.e-clubhouse.org/sites/rugeleyuk

Tenor keeps lunch guests entertained

CANNOCK CHASE LADIES PROBUS CLUB

CLUB chairman Eva Eustace opened the annual luncheon at the Terrace restaurant by asking everyone to observe a minutes silence in memory of Mrs June Wallbanks, a past chairman of the club and for Mrs Sally Nicholls, a long time member, both of whom had passed away recently.

Mrs Eustace went on to welcome everyone to the special occasion and introduced the guests at her top table who were all representing four of the local Probud Clubs in the area.

They were: Mr. Alan Pearson, chairman of Hednesford Mens' Probud Club and his wife, Shirley; Mr. Pat Pincombe, chairman of Cannock Chase Mens' Probud and his wife, Pat; Mrs Val Beale, chairman of Cannock and District Ladies' Probud and her friend, Frances Kennedy.

Mrs. Eustace also welcomed and introduced her husband Ted and thanked him for his support.

The toast mistress was club vice-chairman Pat Preece, and Grace was said by Mr Pincombe.

The loyal toast was proposed by Eva Eustace and the toast to guests was given by social secretary Margaret Parkes. Attendance secretary Pat Stanley, gave a toast to absent friends.

Elsie Parkes introduced Robert Follows, who kept everyone enthralled with his superb tenor voice.

Pat Randall gave the vote of thanks to Robert and his assistant Alan.

In her closing words Mrs Eustace thanked the restaurant staff for their excellent service and delicious food.

She also paid tribute to secretary Norma Hutchinson, who had organised the Luncheon and to the committee for their support.

Cannock Chase Ladies' Probud Club is for retired professional business ladies and meets on the last Thursday of each month at The Barns at noon.

Any enquiries to secretary Norma Hutchinson on 01543 505183.

Villagers sing 'thank you' for grinding machine purchase

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

MEMBERS of SI Cannock & District watched a moving recording of a choir in a village in Kenya, where the villagers were singing to say 'thank you' to the club for providing them with a grinding machine.

Soroptimist Ann Rottchell and her husband Allan founded the charity Action Kenya following a holiday they spent in the country. In 1999 they provided a mill for one of the villages and in 2000 a second mill was provided after Ann and Allan had raised funds here in the UK.

The mills were powered by diesel until the end of last year when the Kenyan Government put an electricity supply into the clinic, the school and the mill. This meant that machines that work from electricity were needed. The women and girls in the village also asked for a machine to take the shells off the corn. The cost of such a grinding mill was £850 and this amount was raised by Soroptimists in Cannock.

The machine was purchased and installed over the winter and Ann and Allan visited earlier this year to see how it was working. Ann reported to club members that the difference it has made to the lives of the villagers is out of this world.

The time taken to grind the corn has been cut dramatically. The machine works from 6 am to 11 pm and grinds 2,000 kilos of corn each day. As well as saving time it has halved the cost of the operation.

Some 4,000 families will benefit from this one grinding mill. The shells are used as food for the chickens, 100 women will be able to use the time they previously spent grinding corn to grow vegetables and crops which they can then sell at market. The children are no longer needed for the shelling and so can go to school.

Soroptimists were thrilled to see the difference that had been made by putting one grinding mill into one village - and were touched by the villagers' song of thanks.

Exhibition of model railways

A MODEL railway exhibition is taking place this weekend at Chasewater Railway.

A number of working layouts will be on show on Sunday (July 9) among the vintage carriages in the steam railway's heritage centre at Brownhills West station.

The usual Sunday passenger service will be running from 11am. Visitors will also be able to see restoration and maintenance taking place on the locomotives and carriages.

In addition, there will be the opportunity to find out about volunteering on the railway.

The railway's annual charity day is on August 14. Call 01543 452623 to book tickets or for more details or visit www.chasewater-railway.org

Get karters to raise hall funds

Councillor Linda Whitehouse, Annette Littler, Mandy Littler, Pam Howdle and Holly Howdle, aged 16, prepare for a Go-Kart challenge in Prospect Village

GO Karters will be racing to raise funds for a village hall this weekend.

Prospect Village, Rawnsley, will host the Go Kart Challenge 2011 as part of a fun day on Saturday (July 9) with money raised going towards the upkeep of the hall in Williamson Avenue.

Linda Whitehouse, chief executive officer of Find it in Hedsnesford, will act as compere on the day.

Teams will be taking part from schools, pubs, fire crews and police.

The fete opens at 10am and youngsters can enjoy a bouncy castle while their parents look round a variety of stalls and food stands.

Mrs Whitehouse said: "There will be prizes for two winners - Best Looking and Fastest Car - but people will need to register with me in the morning."

"There will be a dogs and companion show, lots of stalls, face painting and lots of action to keep people entertained."

Parish puts forward objections to plans

PARISH councillors have made a list of concerns about a potential new development in Penkridge.

Councillors are worried that Northcreek Estates' plans to create a supermarket, hotel, nursing home, petrol station and 150 houses on the Lyne Hill Industrial Estate will have a detrimental impact on the village. The plans also include a 45,000 sq ft supermarket, 70-bedroom hotel and a 30,000 sq ft retail premises.

Councillor Bevan Craddock said there were many concerns about the development and his main wish was to see the site retained for business. He said: "What we really need is jobs and that's a big employment site and it should be kept that way."

Listing their objections to South Staffordshire Council on the district's website, the village authority says: "We believe this type of major development is not appropriate for our community."

Transport

"It would be extremely detrimental to the existing village centre and to the current shops and businesses there."

"There will also be serious traffic and transport problems which will cause major problems for our community as a whole. As part of the site is in the flood plain, there are obvious environmental and flood issues that could be serious for a large part of the centre of our village."

"The loss of currently designated employment land is of major concern."

The council's stance adds: "In times when the Government is encouraging us all to be as sustainable as possible in our lives, we need to be creating jobs closer to where we live."

"We need to encourage and plan for more people to work in their local area rather than travel out of the village every day."

Centre will extend hours after funding

All set for the sack and hoop race are, l to r: Ben Dodd (aged seven), Kane Carless (six) and Eloise Adshad (seven) as they get set for the school sports day at Littleton Green Community School

Pupils join in the fun of sports day

ALL 270 pupils at Huntington's Littleton Green Community School joined in the fun of a traditional sports day. Races were held on the 400-metre track at the school in Colliers Way.

Last year the school split its sports day between track and field days but this year PE co-ordinator Emma Kelly said it was decided to go for just one traditional sports day. "Every pupil took part in an event and parents also joined in the fun with their own races. There were also toddlers races for the pre-school children," she said.

The event, which fell during National School Sports Week, had events for key stage one children in the morning and key stage two in the afternoon.

The school is split into four houses names for nearby places of interest - Pillaton, Hatherton, Shugborough and Teddesley - and each race counted for points towards the house trophy.

A ONE-off donation of £10,000 for the Cannock Chase Advice Centre has averted a potential funding shortfall and enabled it to extend its opening hours.

The well-used Park Road office is expecting a dramatic increase in its workload. The funding has been agreed by Cannock Chase District Council.

Council leader Councillor George Adamson said: "We're delighted to provide funding."

The money will be used to help roll out a Thursday service.

The centre, which is serviced by 10 volunteers, is normally open between 10am and 2pm on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays, but has now also opened on Wednesdays to help people fill in forms and other time-consuming inquiries.

Workload

Manager Jacky Gange said extending their hours was the only way they could cope with the mounting number of clients.

"We're experiencing a tremendous increase in our workload," she said.

Winning entry had been rejected by Sir Paul Long-lost song to be a West End hit

A SEMI-RETIRED musician from Cannock has won a new West End musical competition, with a song rejected by Sir Paul McCartney more than 30 years ago.

Guitarist Larry Rushton, now aged 60, and his 71-year-old songwriting partner Arthur John Williams won first prize in the national song search judged by legendary song writer Neil Sedaka.

The duo's song 'It's Cryin' Time Again' will be performed on the London stage in the rock 'n' roll production Dreamboats and Petticoats and will feature in the hit show's third sell-out UK tour. The sudden recognition of the long-forgotten song has taken its writers by surprise. "I didn't even know the old song had been entered," said Mr Rushton.

"We originally wrote it for a competition run by Paul McCartney in 1981. He'd just bought the Buddy Holly back catalogue and wanted a song to mark the occasion.

Decades

"We had to try and write a track that sounded as if Buddy Holly had written it. So we took all the chords from classic Holly songs - Peggy Sue, That'll Be The Day and so on - and put our own words to it. It sounded great, and we were sure we would win it. It could've been our big break."

But the song came second to a Jeff Stevens composition and gathered dust for the next three decades.

Then Larry's stepdaughter Gemma saw Dreamboats and Petticoats last year and fell in love with the show.

She spotted an article about the competition, also judged by Oscar-winning lyricist Don Black and 10cc's Graham Gouldman, and told Larry.

Now the song-writing pair are looking towards fame and recognition.

"It's ironic really, that back then we would've done anything for fame and fortune," said Larry.

Pupils get a history lesson about village

CHILDREN in Bridgtown had a history lesson about the village where they go to learn every day. Bridgtown Primary teamed up with Bridgtown Historical Society to stage the history day last Friday (July 1). Teachers and pupils dressed up in Victorian costumes, played old fashioned games, and ate their lunch out of old fashioned lunch boxes known as snapboxes.

Clubs unite in fundraiser

THE Rotary and Renaissance clubs of Rugeley have joined forces with St Joseph's Community Centre for a charity fair and auction this weekend.

Raising money for a host of local causes, the event will be held at the centre, in Lichfield Street, on Saturday July 9, from noon until 2pm.

Attractions will include stalls with books, plants and bric-a-brac and refreshments throughout. Admission is 20p.

Jo Raybould, headteacher at the North Street school, said: "We had a fabulous time. We have been working with the Bridgtown Historical Society."

Tony Pearson, from the society helped to organise the event.

"The historical society had several old artefacts and toys and we had a walk around Bridgtown," added Mrs Raybould.

"The children decorated their snapboxes with historic pictures of Bridgtown - we had a fantastic day."

The school decided to get in touch with Bridgtown Historical Society in preparation for the school's 100th birthday next year.

Fire service issues kitchen blazes alert

FIRE chiefs have issued a warning to residents across the Chase following a series of kitchen blazes.

Since April this year, there have been 10 separate incidents in Cannock and Rugeley, the majority of which were caused by cooking left unattended. Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service is now urging householders to take care when cooking.

The most recent incident took place in the early hours of Sunday, June 27 at a home in the Lindens, off Armitage Road, Rugeley. A man who had been drinking fell asleep while cooking and the food caught fire. The 24-year-old occupant was oblivious to the blaze and needed rescuing by firefighters. A vigilant neighbour had raised the alarm.

Cannock assistant area commander Carl Mason said: "People need to realise just how easy it is to cause a kitchen fire - it's not worth the risk, just stay in the kitchen until you have finished cooking."

Drinking

"We would also advise people to avoid cooking if they have been drinking alcohol as it's very easy to fall asleep unintentionally and before you know it your food has caught fire. If food does catch fire, turn off the appliance if it is safe to do so, leave the room closing the door behind you and call the fire service."

The fire service also offers a free smoke alarm fitting service and can identify potential fire hazards in the home.

To book a free home fire risk check contact 0800 0241 999, or visit www.staffordshirefire.gov.uk/HFRC.asp

For all other non-emergency enquiries contact 08451 221155 or visit www.staffordshirefire.gov.uk or www.direct.gov.uk/firekills

2011 Year of the Bible

This is the 400th anniversary of the King James (Authorised) Version of the English Bible.

But the Bible is more than 400 years old. The oldest books of the Old Testament were written nearly 4000 years ago, while the New Testament is 2000 years old. Together they form the Holy Scriptures which record God's purpose with the earth - and with us. This really is a book worth reading.

Have you ever tried or thought about reading the Bible?

THEN THIS IS THE YEAR TO START.

The Cannock Christadelphians organise talks on Bible topics every Sunday at

The Christadelphian Hall, Price Street, Cannock WS11 0DS

You are warmly invited to the following talks which are to aid, help and encourage you to understand the Bible.

Sunday 3rd July 2.45 pm Our World - does God care?

Sunday 10th July 6.00 pm See website for subject title

Sunday 17th July 6.00 pm Has God got good news for you!

Sunday 24th July 6.00 pm A Bible in the hand is worth two on the shelf

Sunday 31st July 6.00 pm Explore the Bible and discover God's purpose

All are open to the public to attend

There is no admission charge or collection

Seal of approval for leading window firm

DESPITE the shrinking economy, one local company has grown to become one of the leading manufacturers of uPVC windows, doors and conservatories in the West Midlands.

Energy seal, based in Planetary Road, Wednesfield, has a 20-strong workforce, all of whom strive to be the very best in the industry in all areas.

This dedication to quality begins with excellent manufacturing of their window system, through to excellent customer service.

Family-run

The company is a family-run business with two brothers, David and Richard Carter, at the helm. Director of sales, David, says: "We aim to give our customers the very best service the industry can offer."

"Through being involved directly with sales, we can develop a special relationship with customers the second their phone rings."

"Then, when our customers become confident they are buying their windows, doors or conservatories off the right company, we then get the project underway."

"Starting with a free technical survey of the work being carried out, we then project-manage everything from that point on."

"In our conservatories range we have many different options for our customers."

"We provide the finished article, starting with the base, brickwork, erecting the uPVC frames and roof, right down to fitting electrics, tiling the floor and fitting vertical blinds."

"In our showroom, we have six full-sized conservatories fully-fitted with fixtures and fittings to show our customers exactly what they're buying."

"Energyseal is also looking to create more jobs in the local area."

Richard, trade director, adds: "When we started manufacturing, we had three employees. Three years on we now employ 10 fabricators, two fitting teams and six office staff."

"We are always looking to expand our business so we can create new jobs for local people. Because we offer such an excellent service, most of our work comes from recommendations so this gives us the opportunity to grow. We also supply to the trade industry."

"If you are interested in buying any of our extensive range of windows, doors or conservatories, call us on 01902 866000 and one of our friendly advisers will be happy to help with your enquiry."

"Alternatively, pop into our showroom for a free no obligation quote."

Customers can choose from a wide range of conservatories in the firm's showroom

This Wednesfield-based company strives for top quality at each stage of manufacturing

Pupils could light up way to Olympics

THREE sporting stars from a Burntwood school have been nominated to carry the Olympic torch as it tours the country before the 2012 Games.

The trio of Chase Terrace Technology College students have been put forward by their school for their achievements in sport, by overcoming illness and encouraging others.

Sixteen-year-old Stephen Sutton, who has excelled at sport throughout his time at school and represented Walsall FC at under-14s, has also had to battle cancer, which he has now overcome, and is looking forward to taking up sport again.

He said: "I found attitudes of sport and fighting cancer complement each other quite nicely. Now I've beaten cancer and am in remission, I'm looking forward to inspiring and helping others.

"If I were to be given the chance to carry the Olympic torch, it would represent the new life I'm now living with no boundaries."

Diet

Emma Harbage has lived with a rare metabolic disorder which means she is unable to break down protein in food. She needs to keep to a strict diet and take a protein substitute.

However this hasn't stopped her developing a passion for sport and she has been selected to attend a national rugby talent camp.

The 16-year-old has now been offered a scholarship to attend college where she will combine further education with rugby.

Emma said: "I feel it is important to give something back and I get as much pleasure when one of my gymnasts achieves as when I do. Gymnastics requires hard work, dedication and commitment which are also important life skills."

The third nominee is Amy Douglas, a Year 13 student who is a platinum sports ambassador at Chase Terrace.

She has led numerous sports groups for all ages, including primary schools and was involved in her own school's Get Set Olympic network application.

The 18-year-old has also organised many sports days and inter-schools tournaments.

Film maker's work has accent on area

CHARACTERS with a distinctive Black Country or Staffordshire twang could be filling the screens at the Cannes Film Festival.

Paul Clothier has been working on his 90-minute feature length animation for around the last three years and is now adding the final touches.

To complete Snakes and Ladders, a modern day black-comedy, loosely based on the writing of Russian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Mr Clothier needs people with specific accents to lend some of the characters a voice – and some of the characters will be Midlandsers.

He said: "I need a few and some will have accents local to this area. But I still really need someone with a middle eastern accent."

Eligible

The 35-year-old father-of-three from Great Wyrley, who works as a radiographer at Cannock Hospital, hopes to complete his debut film before Christmas to make sure it is eligible to be considered for the 2012 Cannes Film Festival.

If the film proves to be a hit, he has promised he will share some of the success with people willing to lend their services for free.

Mr Clothier hopes he will have a better chance than normal as the UK Film Council was axed this March and he says this has hampered the prospects of many up-and-coming film makers. The film has been animated by painstakingly using the Paint function on his home computer.

Mr Clothier says an obscure 1990 Australian film, titled Nirvana Street Murder and starring ex-Neighbours star Mark Little, also proved an inspiration.

People who think they might have a suitable voice can contact Paul by sending him an email to clothier.p@gmail.com

Animation film maker Paul Clothier appeals for local volunteers to voice the characters in his latest movie

School's log cabin is opened

A NEW £70,000 library and community room has opened at a Rugeley school.

The wooden building at John Bamford Primary in Crabtree Way has been christened the Log Cabin.

It will be used for the school's before and after-school care and will also house a toy lending library and be used for adult education and family learning classes.

Rugeley Power Station gave half the cost.

Power station finance manager Doug Alston, former deputy head Robert Harris and past chairman of governors Steve Elcock cut the ribbon.

Head Lawrence Wood said: "The Log Cabin will be used by the whole school."

The school's Glee choir and orchestra also performed at the ceremony.

Heralding the opening of a new log cabin classroom at the John Bamford School in Rugeley are, left, Nicola Frater (aged 10) and Rebecca Perry (11)

£1,000 is raised at cycle ride

A 75-MILE charity cycle ride organised by a Rugeley cycling club raised more than £1,000 for Help for Heroes.

More than 100 riders took part in Brereton Wheelers' second annual Ride for Heroes on Sunday (July 3).

The event was organised by member Angus Page and numbers were 30 per cent up on 2010. The route took in Cannock Chase, Brewood, Stone, Uttoxeter, Abbots Bromley and Handacre.

Donate blood

RUGELEY residents are urged to give blood next Wednesday, July 13. The National Blood Service will be at Lea Hall Social Club, in Sandy Lane, from 1.30 to 3.30pm and from 4.30-7.30pm. Call 0300 1232323.

Heroes to benefit from summer ball

THE mother of a Rugeley soldier is hosting a charity ball and wants other families with loved ones in the British troops to honour their work at the annual event.

This will be the third Help for Heroes ball hosted by Carolyn Everall, from Etching Hill. This year she wants more focus on local heroes.

The ball will be held at 7pm, on July 30, at Power Station sports and social club, on Power Station Road. It will welcome service men and women including Carolyn's son Christopher, aged 25, who has already completed three tours and is preparing to return to Afghanistan next year.

The previous two summer fundraisers have helped to raise more than £20,000 for the Help for Heroes charity.

All the money goes to specialist military hospitals including Headley Court and Selly Oak.

Carolyn, aged 51, said: "I feel very strongly about the after care of our very committed young men and women."

"The ball is a chance to show how proud we are of them and what they have been doing of the past 10 years."

"I think it is really important to acknowledge our heroes from Rugeley and I really hope other local families will join me in showing our appreciation for the work they do for our county."

Special guests will include the chairman of the town council, Councillor Mick Grocott and a military representative. There will also be a speech from a young soldier who was injured in Afghanistan in 2009.

Tickets for the ball are £20 which includes a buffet.

To nominate your hero to be mentioned at the ball or for tickets contact Carolyn on 07816644625.

Elmore has ball as town Lotto mascot

Lotto mascot Elmore

THE search to find a name for the Rugeley Lotto mascot came to an end last month when the winning monicker was chosen.

The Rugeley Traders Association launched a competition to find a name for the mascot. It was won by 12-year-old Connor Pritchard, who chose the name Elmore.

The winning entry was selected by market co-ordinator Tony Duckman. He said: "The name was perfect as Elmore is an old Rugeley name being taken from Elmore Park and Elmore Lane and is well deserved."

The traders' association has held a number of successful events over the past months including a May Day event featuring maypole dancing by Studio 5.

Due to its popularity they have already started planning a week-long May dance for next year, and have donated their very own maypole so any groups, young or old, can start practising for next year.

Following this event was Rugeley's very first R Factor, based on the television talent competition. The competition was fierce and was won by Tyler Mycock, aged 15, from Rugeley.

He went on to record his own CD at Abbey Sound Recording Studio and performed at the Charter Fair.

The association worked with the town council to hold a successful Rugeley Charter Fair Day, with some of the traders and the local schools getting involved with the Off Your Trolley Parade where they decorated shopping trolleys and paraded them through the town.

Atmosphere

The trolley decorating competition was won by Churchfields Primary School.

With the money raised from the Lotto and other events, the association decorated the town with colourful bunting to bring a carnival atmosphere to the day.

The association are now planning future activities including a Halloween day and a Christmas late night shopping event.

Shop owners in the town can join the Rugeley Traders Association by contacting 07817 081821 or 07866 610894.

Golfers tee off for dress down day

GOLFER Pete Till is looking the part as a Rugeley golf club looks to change the image of the game.

The amateur dramatic enthusiast has put on his best frock to take part in a dress down day at St Thomas's Priory Golf Club.

It's one of five fun events the club is putting on from July 18 to 22 to attract players who have been put off by golf's stuffy reputation.

Club member Mr Till is set to play the part of the dame in the Rugeley Musical Theatre Company's panto this year.

Director of golf at St Thomas's Phil Gibson said: "We want to flag up that we do things a little bit differently at St Thomas's. If people have been put off playing golf because of its image, the message is come and give us a try."

"We're a very friendly club where the emphasis is on enjoying the fun of golf."

To book or for more details, call Dan Lowe or Phil Gibson on 01543 491911 or email info@hawkesyardestate.com

Elderly to go on trip to seaside

ELDERLY Rugeley residents are off on an annual day trip next month.

The trip to Southport on August 1, organised by Rugeley senior citizens committee, has been able to go ahead thanks to the backing of Brereton & Ravenhill parish council, Rugeley Power Station, Rugeley Town Council and the Staffordshire Local Community Funding.

Anyone aged 68 and over living in Rugeley or Brereton, who would like to go on the trip, can obtain tickets from 10am until noon from the Rose Theatre, in Taylors Lane today (Thursday).

Tickets are £6, or £7 for adult carers under 68.

Town school has governor role vacancy

A NEW community governor is being sought by a Rugeley school.

The governing body at Chancel Primary School is inviting interested business people to put their names forward.

Sarah Mollitt, clerk to the school's governing body, said: "Community governors are appointed by the governing body to represent community interests."

"Governing bodies are responsible for a wide range of matters, which include ensuring that pupils receive high quality education, and planning for the future development and improvement of the school. Community governors play an important role as members of the governing body and are welcomed as valued members of the team.

"Governors make important decisions on how a school will be run. The governing body is answerable to parents, learners and the wider community."

Academic

"Our meetings are held twice a term, six per academic year, and governors usually also sit on a committee, which will meet at least twice a year."

For more information, contact Ms Mollitt on 01889 256137.

Taste of business

A TASTER evening was staged for potential new customers at a Rugeley social club.

The event at Lea Hall Mines Welfare Centre and Social Club was organised by the boss of a Stafford catering business who has just taken over the food side of the business at the Sandy Lane club.

Lisa Perry, director of Fatsos in Stone Road, has been chosen by the committee to run its catering operation.

The kitchens have been refurbished, and guests from the business community were invited along to sample the food.

Fatsos has been running for 20 years and also offers event planning and corporate catering services.

Donation by traders to charity

MARKET traders in Rugeley have donated a wheelchair to a disability charity based in the town.

Members of Rugeley Disabled Association in Church Street received the mobility aid at a special presentation at the council-run market.

Stallholders raised the money in April by holding an Easter egg raffle and a bonnet parade.

Market trader Pat Hancock said: "We're really chuffed to be able to help."

Yvonne Rickwood from Rugeley Disabled Association said: "We hire out wheelchairs to local people and one of them had just broken, so this has come at just the right time."

Lighting the Fuse for three-day Event in a Tent

FINAL preparations are being put in place for this year's Lichfield Fuse Festival.

The festival kicks off tomorrow (Friday) with a host of acts and activities lined up for the three-day event. As well as music performances taking place every afternoon and evening, a series of art exhibitions and workshops will keep visitors busy.

At 7.45pm on Friday people are invited to Go Ukulele Crazy, where they can learn to play the instrument.

Singers and musicians can then join in with hosts Chris Newcombe and Dave Simcox to perform a few popular hits, while Lichfield singer Michael Jones will give an American songbook performance to round off the night.

The fun continues on Saturday July with an open mic session in the acoustic tent from noon-4pm. A light and technology show from the Halo Glow Walkabout takes place between 8pm and 10.30pm, said to be a visual smorgasbord of choreographed colour and complex patterns drawn in the air by a world class artist.

Dave and Dominic Simcox will run a Circus Skills workshop from noon-5pm and another ukulele workshop – this time aimed at children, takes place at 1pm.

Wildlife

Dangerous Dave and his sidekick Herbert Lemon will perform their Street Puppet Show at 2pm and 4pm, with a sea shanty singing session from Lichfield Lighthouse Company at 3pm.

Saturday is also the NLI Environment day, which will be led by the North Lichfield Initiative, offering advice and helpful hints about recycling, energy conservation, gardening, reducing carbon footprints, wildlife and eco-play. Sunday will see performance by Fuse's Outreach teams. Journeys and Quests is the end result of work with local groups and schools, and will include hundreds of people involved in the project. Part one runs from 2.30pm until 3.15pm and part two will run from 4-4.15pm.

The Fuse Arts Fair will take place from noon-5pm and attendees can learn all about the work of Lichfield and Hatherton Canal Restoration trust, Lichfield Mysteries, Lichfield and District Talking Newspaper, Lichfield RSPB and a number of other groups.

Also in the tent, Timothy Harrington will read Charles Dickens and Colin Ward will run the Sketch Book Theatre. Visitors can also put their wordsmith hats on and add to the Poet Tree, being run by Joanne Woodward and Heather Fowler. For a full line up visit www.fuselichfield.org.uk

No errors in this comedy romp

REVIEW

The Comedy of Errors, Stafford Shakespeare Festival

PLAYED out with Stafford Castle as the backdrop, this farcical case of mistaken identity marks the 21st anniversary of the county town's Shakespeare Festival.

And what a romp it is. The dialogue may be heavy at times, but the secret is to not take it too seriously, and there were certainly laughs a-plenty.

The story centres on two sets of twin brothers, separated at birth, who all end up in the same town. They are promptly mistaken by all and sundry, and so begins the slapstick set of circumstances.

Eric Potts, Coronation Street's Digory Compton and Philip Harries, a cross between Eddie Large and Max Boyce, make a terrific double act, hamming it up as twin servants Dromio, while Rupert Hill, another ex-Corrie star, is faultless as Antipholus of Syracuse. There is plenty of good music from an accomplished cast with Eamonn O'Dwyer, who portrayed Antipholus of Ephesus, showing off his fine voice.

For me, Polly Maberly was the best of the bunch as Luciana, with Polly Frame also adept as her sister Adrianna.

Rupert Hill and Eric Potts in The Comedy of Errors

What's more, on this occasion, the rain held off. The Comedy of Errors has proved to be another winner – and runs until Saturday (July 9).

Mark Shipp

Fab Four sounds with a twist at the Garrick

THREE distinguished musicians will recreate the magic of The Beatles with a twist when they make a welcome return to Lichfield's Garrick Theatre.

Beatles, Blues and Blue Violins stars Phil

Bates and Mik Kaminski, former members of Electric Light Orchestra and ELO Part II, alongside Tina McBain from the Eleanor Rigby Experience.

Now in its ninth UK tour, the acoustic show explores new arrangements of Beatles songs, particularly where the band played the blues. ELO material will also be on the set list, as well as songs from Bates' solo repertoire.

Tickets for the show, which takes place on Friday September 9, are £13.50 for adults and £10 for students.

Book online at www.lichfieldgarrick.com or call the Castle Dyke theatre's box office on 01543 412121.

Yearly ball Stumble's for charity soul night

CANNOCK plays host to an annual charity masquerade summer ball on July 16.

Cancer Research UK will be the beneficiary of the fundraising night at Bar Sport's Premier Suite, High Green.

ITV new presenter Bob Hall will emcee the evening, which will include a champagne reception and seven-course meal.

Live entertainment includes fire eaters, acrobats, magicians and party band The Catch.

Tables for 10 people are available for £525. Individual tickets are £55. To book call 01543 572092.

SOUL and motown classics will be on the menu at a Cannock pub later this month.

Soul'd Out at The Stumble will see the 14-piece live soul and motown tribute act pay homage to their heroes of yesteryear.

They play hits by The Four Tops, The Temptations, Martha Reeves, Aretha Franklin, James Brown, The Commitments, Al Wilson and many more.

Tickets for the gig, at The Stumble Inn in Walsall Road, Bridgton, on July 23, are £5 on the door.

To book in advance call Paul on 07773 291444.

Tribute act to perform band's album in full

THE UK'S number one Green Day tribute act will perform a seminal punk-pop album in its entirety later this month. Dookie was released in 1994 and sold 15 million copies worldwide, also spawning hit singles Basket Case and When I Come Around.

The album will be played in full by Green Bay at The Tackeroo on Saturday July 23.

Green Bay drummer Dodgy Cool said: "Green Day's major label debut album Dookie was recorded 18 years ago so we thought it would be a great idea to play the whole album from front to back."

"It lasts about 45 minutes so we will have plenty of time to play loads more Green Day songs such as American Idiot, Holiday, Minority."

Support on the night comes from Flat-line Stereo, who start at 9pm, with Green Bay on stage at 10pm.

Doors open at 8pm and admission is £5.

Voice of golf at theatres

THE voice of British golf Peter Alliss is coming to Cannock and Lichfield this autumn.

Dates on The Further Golfing Adventures of Peter Alliss tour have been set for September 20 at the Lichfield Garrick and October 22 at the Prince of Wales Centre in Cannock.

The former golfer, now aged 80, won 21 professional titles from 1954 to 1969. Tickets for the Cannock show are £18 and for Lichfield £20. Call the Prince of Wales Centre box office on 01543 578762 or the Lichfield Garrick on 01543 412121.

70pc of homes on site are sold

LEADING house-builder David Wilson Homes has now sold more than 70 per cent of the homes at the company's Victoria Place development on Friary Lane, Lichfield.

The developer, which was recently awarded with a maximum five star rating from the Home Builders Federation for a second consecutive year, has found that its combination of excellent quality homes and a fantastic location has been integral to the company's success at the sought-after community.

"We're delighted that people have been so impressed with Victoria Place" comments Carole Ashworth, Sales Manager for David Wilson Mercia. "It's a real sign of approval that so many people from Lichfield, the West Midlands and further afield have decided that this is the place to make their home."

"We currently have an excellent range of properties at the development - from two bedroom apartments that are ideal for first time buyers to exceptional three, four and five-bedroom homes."

Excellent

"There really is something for everyone here and we are delighted to have reached this impressive milestone for the development."

Victoria Place is situated in the heart of Lichfield, providing a perfect family environment in a safe community with excellent access to the town centre as well as the wider West Midlands via the nearby road networks, which are within easy reach of the development.

A commitment to excellent locations is at the centre of David Wilson Mercia's goal to provide the highest quality in family housing - and with nearly two-thirds of homebuyers in the West Midlands stating that location is the principal quality they look for in a new home, the housebuilder is well-placed to continue to meet the needs and high standards of the area's homebuyers.

The development currently features two-bedroom apartments available from £152,500 and three-, four- and five-bedroom homes available from £235,500 to £560,000.

And the company has now released the Brookman show home for sale at the development. The fully furnished, five-bedroom property is currently available for £560,000.

Lotus set to blossom

BRITISH success in the car industry is usually worth celebrating and when the subject is the much-loved sports car maker Lotus, there's even more reason to be proud.

Having undergone difficult management squabbles in the past, the stable ownership of Proton has allowed the Norfolk firm to push forward with ambitious plans for the future.

The clearest example of this was the show-stealing array of production concepts presented at the 2010 Paris motor show. The five concepts came with a promise of production reality within five years, an ambitious plan for any size of manufacturer.

Almost a year on, and once again Lotus is talking about its future plans but with the emphasis on facilities, starting with the new multimillion-pound test track.

The old Lotus track at Hethel was a challenge for car and driver, mainly due to the mixed and crumbling surfaces, but the new facility is a spectacular high-speed challenge.

Zimmermann revealed that the next Esprit supercar will use a new V8 engine developed in-house.

This may give it the performance to challenge the established benchmarks from Ferrari and McLaren.

At the other end of the scale, it confirmed production of a city car called Ethos to appear in 2014.

A re-engineered version of the vehicle will also be sold by parent company Proton. Such a comprehensive assault on a number of fronts may sound like a step too far, but Lotus is keen to point out that a company of its size can make quick decisions and rapid progress.

The first step in the programme will be the new Esprit in 2013, and if that hits the mark, it will signal a complete transformation of this iconic British brand.

Greg Mansell, Bruno Senna, Vitaly Petrov, James Rossiter and Johnny Mowlem lining up behind a string of Lotus racing cars

Collection

To demonstrate the new circuit and to highlight Lotus's multi-formula assault on motorsport, it rolled out a collection of historic and modern day racers that any manufacturer would love to have.

F1 World Champion and Indy Car Champion Nigel Mansell was reunited with his first Lotus F1 racer, while the current Lotus Renault F1 machines blazed the new circuit driven by current driver Vitaly Petrov and test driver Bruno Senna.

Yet there was equal emphasis on its future road car programme, as chief engineer Wolf

VOLVO'S newly enhanced D5 range manages to strike the balance between environment and performance despite larger engine sizes.

Sometimes a higher performing and bigger engine is what's required from a company car. This would usually compromise environmental concerns and lift fuel costs and taxes. Volvo's latest D5 diesel range provides a number of models with impressive fuel economy and CO2 emissions.

The upgraded versions of the Volvo V70, XC70 and S80 are the first in the model to have sharpened versions of the five-cylinder D5 turbodiesels which boost performance and torque from 205 hp/420Nm to 215 hp/440Nm while reducing fuel consumption by as much as eight per cent.

Choice

"We have made these vehicles more enjoyable and as cost-efficient as possible to drive," said Volvo UK's national sales manager, Selwyn Cooper. "With that comes lower CO2 which means company car drivers have a widened choice of vehicles powered by larger engines without the expected hike in the amount of tax they would have to pay."

Fuel consumption (EU Combined) of a Volvo S80 D5 is 57.7mpg (129g/km of CO2) with manual gearbox and start/stop, placing it in the 18 per cent BIK category. Figures for the automatic version are 44.1mpg (159 g/km). The figures for a Volvo V70 are 55.4mpg (134g/km) with manual gearbox and 45.6mpg with automatic (164g/km). Fuel consumption in the XC70 D5 AWD manual is 50mpg (149g/km) and 41.5mpg (179g/km) for automatic.

The V70, XC70 and S80 have been upgraded with features including driveline, interior and exterior equipment including the latest user-friendly Volvo Sensus infotainment system, and are available to order now with on-the-road prices for D5 versions starting from £30,100 for the V70 D5 (215hp) ES Start/Stop; £31,135 for the S80 D5 (215hp) SE Start/Stop; and £32,765 for the XC70 D5 AWD (215 hp) ES Start/Stop.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a puppy farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Kurt Wigley in action

Oh brother! Twins crash out

TEENAGE racing twins Kurt and Matthew Wigley both suffered crashes in the latest round of the French Superbike Championships.

Riding in the Pirelli 600 Superstock class, the 15-year-olds struggled with their bike setup on a technically challenging track in blistering hot conditions.

The race was held at Circuit de Lédenon, in the south of France near Nîmes, and Matthew's weekend got off to the worst possible start.

In his second lap on track he was thrown off his bike in spectacular style at 140mph, going over his handlebars after a rider pulled in front of Matthew on the racing line.

Surprisingly he suffered only a bruise on his arm but Matthew's bike took plenty of damage and the mechanics had a race against time to repair it for the next track session.

Next up it was Kurt's turn to leave his bike after clipping his foot pegs off a curb, which threw him across the track and into a gravel trap.

The mechanics got to work again but the rest of the weekend was fairly uneventful for the two youngest riders in the field.

A poor setup continued to hinder the twins, with their bikes constantly snaking on the straights and in corners.

Matthew managed to score one more point in the championship by finishing 15th in the junior class, while Kurt recovered from a first-lap crash to move from 29th to 19th at the finish line.

After the race dad Martin paid tribute to the team's mechanics for keeping the boys in contention.

"We would like to extend a huge thank you to Quattro Plant and Steve at Chase Accident Repair who manages to hit all the deadlines on working on the boys' crash-damaged fairings ready for the next round," he said.

"Thanks also to all of our sponsors who make this possible for us including local businesses Geartec, Winfield Test Centre and Hewkin Executive."

Kurt and Matthew, from Hednesford, are now preparing to return to action in a couple of weeks for a pre-test session at Assen followed by the next round at Magny-Cours.

Gritty display leads to first win for Chase Park

CANNOCK XI 0 LICHFIELD XI 10

CANNOCK made the short trip to Lichfield in what proved to be their heaviest defeat of the summer so far to a well organised and well drilled home side.

The hosts dominated for the whole game as Cannock left their young goalkeeper Brad Evans exposed for most of the game and despite Evans playing well, he could do nothing to stop the wave after wave of Lichfield attack.

Cannock's young keeper was the only player on the visiting team that could take any credit out of this embarrassing defeat.

Meanwhile as Cannock continue to suffer Hatherton continue to storm their way through the league with their sixth straight win after a 3-1 victory of Sutton Royals.

CHASE PARK XI 2 WALSALL/ALDRIDGE XI 0
Chase Park won their first game of the summer with a superb 2-0 victory over Walsall/Aldridge on Thursday evening.

It proved quite a result for the hosts after they had lost 9-0 away to the same side but had now gained their first three points of the season.

A gritty and determined display by all involved saw Chase Park prove to have too much quality for the visitors as goals from Ed Fleet and Aaron Wilkes saw captain Darren Pugh finally achieve his first win as captain. Young keeper Brad Evans also enjoyed a great game in goal talking to his defence throughout and pulling off several quality saves.

CANNOCK LADIES A XI 3 SUTTON COLDFIELD LADIES XI 3
After four straight wins Cannock faced their toughest test of the summer league so far when they faced Sutton Coldfield at Chase Park on Tuesday night.

With first team player Ellie Watton missing, this heightened the enormity of the task that the young Cannock side faced.

Coach Alex Hill knew the game would be a big indication on where his team were in their preparations for the 2011-12 season. To everyone's delight the girls performed admirably.

After a shaky start that saw them go two goals behind some quality hockey saw the girls play their way back into game with Holly Turbill playing her first game of the summer causing Sutton numerous problems. This quality saw the girls rewarded and they drew level thanks to goals from Turbill and the ever improving Jade Rowe.

The second half saw Cannock continue to dominate and a great through by Shannon Deakin saw fellow young prospect Ellie Bradbury put the ball passed the rushing keeper to send Cannock 3-2 ahead.

A lead that the girls fully deserved was not kept however as Sutton drew the game level to leave the full-time score at 3-3. A game performance and result for a young set of girls showing just how far they have come in their progression and quest for improvement.

CANNOCK LADIES B XI 4 STAFFORD LADIES XI 0
A Beth Jennings double and an Amy Neal strike contributed to help Cannock Ladies B side to a 4-0 victory over Stafford on Wednesday night.

The game saw Cannock play some good hockey as all the girls continue to work hard, enjoy the game and improve themselves led by captain Lydia Gallagher.

Peter Blake with his badminton award

Badminton stalwart adds another string

A BADMINTON stalwart has been rewarded for his exceptional service to the sport.

Peter Blake of Hednesford received Badminton England's English Badminton Award for "long standing exceptional service to badminton in England".

Mr Blake is chairman of the Staffordshire and Black Country county badminton associations and received the honour at their AGM last Wednesday (June 29).

The presentation was made by former Staffordshire player and ex-England international David Eddy at Rugeley Leisure Centre in Burnthill Lane.

As well as being county chairman for 10 years, Mr Blake has held many posts in badminton over the last 50 years. These include being county treasurer for 25 years, county captain for 20 and coach to Cannock schools at Cheslyn Hay for a quarter of a century. He was also county schools team manager for five years and spent eight years as South Staffordshire league coaching secretary.

Veterans

In addition, Mr Blake he was a founder member of Cannock badminton club in 1962 and has since been made a life member.

He was founder of the Stafford and District badminton league in 1964 and as well as holding the post of county chairman is also the county veterans co-ordinator, captain of the over 60s county team and serves on the disciplinary committee of Badminton England.

A native of Heath Hayes and a former student at Kingsmead Technology College, Mr Blake has recently retired from his teaching post and apart from his continuing interest in badminton is a lifelong supporter of both Aston Villa and Hednesford football clubs.

Sunny spell sees return of evening sport at Blithfield

CALF Heath Reservoir provided some big weights in the recent silver fish only match.

Carl Hammond took the honours with 76lb 3oz of bream, second was Dave Ridgeway with 59lb 10oz and third Paul Bucknall with 53lb 3oz.

The venue continues to fish well, with swimfeeder and groundbait proving the most successful method.

Kingswood Lake has produced two 20-pound plus fish recently, the biggest a cracking 26lb 2oz mirror carp to Scott Day.

Around the area anglers have been enjoying some great sport on most of the local day ticket waters, but most encouraging is the return to form of the local Canal network.

Big bags of quality roach, bream and chub have all been reported as well as double figure carp. The Wolverhampton AA, which controls a large section of The Staffs-Worcester and Shropshire Union Canals charges £3 per day or £15 for the season.

Local trout fisheries are fishing well providing anglers pick their times to suit the prevailing weather conditions.

The recent sunny spell has seen the evening sport on Blithfield return some nice catches on dry fly, over wintered rainbows and the odd big brown trout providing some memorable sport. The best bag for the week was 19 fish, all returned. A four-hour evening ticket is £12 per person and an evening motor boat ticket is a very reasonable £9 per boat. More info on 01283 840284.

Catches at Loynton, Seighford and Ellerdine have all been reasonable again picking the times to suit the conditions.

River fishing has been patchy but the Dove and the Trent have produced barrel and chub to the specialist anglers. The biggest a 15lb 12oz barrel from the Dove.

We now have season tickets available for Izaak Walton, Stafford, Wolverhampton AA, Blackfords PAS

If you would like your Fishery mentioned, contact us and all you coarse, game and sea anglers out there... if you have an up to date "fishy story" to report please contact us and we will attempt to include it for you.

City club nets an ace accolade

LICHFIELD Friary Tennis Club has been awarded the prestigious Clubmark status by the Lawn Tennis Association.

The LTA administers Clubmark based on the national guidelines for best practice as introduced by Sport England in 2002 across 34 sports.

There are only 800 Clubmark accredited clubs in the UK who have proved they are delivering a high quality tennis development programme.

To gain Clubmark accreditation, clubs must achieve the following criteria:

● Ensure the club has a fair

and transparent operational structure.

● Adhere to best practice policies and procedures around safeguarding junior and adult members/users.

● Deliver a comprehensive and all-encompassing tennis programme for all ages and abilities.

● Produce a clear plan of action for long term sustainability and future growth.

Achim Kreuser, club chairman said: "We are delighted to be awarded Clubmark status. As with all sports clubs we are having to cope with rising costs, and in these tough economic times it is becoming difficult for some to maintain their membership.

"However this recognition shows we are a well-managed club and have developed plans for the future."

Lichfield Friary Tennis Club boasts six artificial grass floodlit courts, ample free parking and a large clubhouse.

There are 14 mens, womens and mixed competitive teams and players of all standards are always welcome to join in.

Whitehouse and Wickett renew rivalries

LICHFIELD DASH

THE timetable for the Lichfield Dash, the 13th annual race against the clock, has been finalised.

Dash founder Kevin Wilson of organisers KP Events said: "Everyone knows that the dash is all about a bunch of quality athletes racing each other and the 12 noon chimes but from 10am onwards the youngsters of Lichfield and surrounding areas turn Cathedral Close into a race track and have fun running 100m sprints and 400m circuits plus relays to complete the fun.

"The dash is unique not only in the dash itself but also in the build up and we're proud of that!"

The morning also features the return of the Dash Mile when an invited field will race around a one-mile circuit of The Close.

The main dash at 11.59am features a re-run between last year's winners from Birchfield Harriers, James Whitehouse and Cannock and Stafford's Ashley Wickett.

More information on the dash, sponsored by Salts Techstep, and the full timetable, can be found at www.kpevents.net or by calling Kevin Wilson on 07971100973.

Boss Charlie Blakemore welcomes Alex Steadman to the Scholars Ground

New boy Steadman wings in at Scholars

ANOTHER new face has joined the Chasetown ranks with the signing of attacker Alex Steadman from Mickleover Sports.

Manager Charlie Blakemore has been a long term admirer of the 24-year old wide man, who has led the goalscoring charts for the last two seasons at Mickleover scoring 19 goals last season.

Steadman's previous clubs include Long Eaton United and Belper Town.

Blakemore said: "I tried to sign Alex three years ago after he played against us in a friendly for Ilkeston Town.

"He is quick, hard working and scores goals. He scored 19 goals last season from a wide left position and this is an area I wanted to strengthen. He is a great signing for us as we now have excellent attacking options in the squad."

Steadman joins fellow new signings Darren Stride and Jake Sedgemore in what is looking like a very strong squad for the 2011-12 Evo-Stik League season.

At Hednesford Town, chairman Steve Price has looked to build on a positive end to last season for the Pitmen by confirming that the popular 'Adult and Child For A Tenner' ticket will be rolled out for all league games during the 2011/12 season.

The tickets aims to engage the local community and encourage families from around the area to experience the atmosphere of a match at Keys Park.

A family ticket, admitting two adults and two under-16 children will also be available for £18, along with a ticket for one adult and two under-16 children for £12.

The Pitmen chairman stated his goal to see many more families attending matches as the club looks to entice new fans, young and old, to create a positive atmosphere when local rivals Stafford Rangers and Chasetown visit Keys Park in the coming months.

"The Oxford City Family Day, led by the Supporters Association, was a real success in April and I would love to see local people turn out to support their team as we look to build on last season," Mr Price said.

"We understand that money is tight in these difficult economic times but I believe the family based tickets mean more people from around the area will be able to attend."

Supporters Association joint chairman, Scott Smith echoed the sentiments of the Hednesford Town's owner.

He said: "Getting families involved in our club is one of the most important aspects of what we, as a Supporters Association, want to do and hopefully the family ticket offers, along with numerous themed-days we are planning will help the club achieve its goals."

Other prices around Keys Park have been confirmed as £10 adults, £6 concessions, in the main stand and £9 adults, £5 concessions in the terraced areas of Keys Park. Junior Pitmen season tickets are priced at £20 terracing and £40 main stand. Adult season tickets are priced at £180 (£108 concessions) in the main stand and £162 (£90 concessions) in the terraced areas.

Meanwhile, the first team squad returned to pre-season training this week as they prepare for their first pre-season friendly at Heath Hayes on Saturday July 16, kick off 3pm. The Supporters Association will also be holding their inaugural fundraising night at Keys Park on the evening from 7pm at special 'Race Night'. Admission is £3 for members £4 for non-members.

PENKRIDGE 1STS (311-4) BEAT SPRINGVALE (151) BY 160 RUNS

THE statisticians at Penkridge CC have been flicking through the annals of past glories to see whether the 1st XI nine match winning streak is a club record!

Battling first Penkridge recovered from losing their openers cheaply thanks to a master class from Ronnie Hassan who blazed his way to an unbeaten 152 from just 148 balls, a knock which included 12 4s and nine 6s. He posted stands of 71 with skipper Paul Szweczyk (33) and 120 with in-form Laeq Chishti (73) and a cameo 29 not out at the end from Simon Parnaby ensured a commanding total of 311-4.

Basement side Springvale were undone by veteran Aussie Gary Pope (3-61) who had them rocking at 73-4. Ross Shelton (2-9) once again proved to be a key partnership breaker as he removed Matt Bennett (31) and Adan Hussain (45) as they began to look dangerous.

Rich James celebrated his first team recall with a match -inning 4-23 as Springvale collapsed to 151. PENKRIDGE 2NDS (212) LOST TO OLD WULFS & TETENHALL (216-9) BY ONE WICKET

The 2nd XI came undone The Cannock & Lichfield Chronicle, a Midland News Association Ltd publication, printed by the company at Ketley, Telford. Thursday, July 7 2011 at Pillaton on Saturday in a thrilling see-saw match.

Penkridge were asked to bat first, and progressed steadily thanks to Andy Lawson (32) and Mohammed Shaffiq (24).

Teetering at 101-5, Penkridge were indebted to youngsters Kieran Smith and Connor Bowdler who frustrated the OW attack putting on a crucial 34 for the seventh wicket.

Ian Brown who had retired with a hamstring injury, returned to the crease to smite a few boundaries in his 61 as Penkridge scraped through to 212 all out in the 49th over.

OW raced to 126-1 thanks to Kelvin Brookes (72) and Shaillly Badra (36), but the introduction of Nick Giles (3-37) found OW struggling.

Brown (3-44) began to make inroads into the line up reducing them to 186-9. But no.8 Prab Vijayaratham crashed seven boundaries in his 39 not out as he saw his team home in the 44th over.

PENKRIDGE 3RDS (55-0) BEAT PENN (52) BY 10 WICKETS

The 3rd XI consolidated their position at the top of division 3 with a commanding showing against Penn on Saturday. Khalid Sadaq was the star of the show, taking 7-17 as Penn were skittled for just 52 inside 35 overs. Penkridge openers Ishfaq Mohammed and Manzoor Sadiq then raced to victory in the 16th over.

PENKRIDGE 2NDS (231-5) BEAT FORDHOUSES (228) BY THREE RUNS

On Sunday a Penkridge 2nd XI hosted Fordhouses

2nds in an enthralling Sunday League fixture.

Having won the toss and deciding to bat Penkridge were able to post 231-5 in 40 overs thanks to veteran Peter Parnaby (122) and Kieran Smith (60).

Fordhouses lost four early wickets but recovered to 228-8 with their skipper at the wicket on 110.

He was removed by Matt Stinson and two balls later Fordhouses were 228 all out with Stinson returning 7-31 in seven overs.

CANNOCK 3RDS BEAT (266-6) BEACON 3RDS (197) BY 69 RUNS

Cannock returned to the top of the table with a well earned victory over Beacon.

Batting first after losing the toss, Cannock's openers had to work hard for their runs and by the 17th over were reduced to 62-3.

Connor Shingler, opening for the first time this season, and Tom Bull set about rebuilding the innings with a stand of 90 before Bull fell for 47. Kev Ryan added a quick 30 and Jack Twigger was 12no at the close.

Unbeaten at the other end was Shingler who carried his bat for 123no to see Cannock close with 266 from their allotted 50 overs.

In reply three wickets fell in the space of five overs to leave Beacon on 45-3.

A 97 stand between French and Crainer followed but a mix up taking a quick single left Crainer stranded and he was run out for 32. French followed soon after run out for 68. Two wickets for Jamie Fleet followed before Tom Bull and Dan Wood returned to mop up the tail.

HEATH HAYES FC

JUST one month remains before the start of the new season – and Heath Hayes are looking to build on last year's mid-table finish.

Simon Davies will again take charge at the Coppice Colliery Ground in Newlands Lane and the manager has set his sights on gatecrashing the top six.

The Hayes finished 11th in the Midland Football Alliance last season after earning promotion the year before.

Along the way they scored 64 goals – more than fourth-placed Loughborough University – but conceded five more than Coventry Sphinx in 18th, with 65, meaning their fans were never short of entertainment.

Davies said supporters could expect more of the same this time around.

"They certainly got their money's worth last season," he said. "It's a very competitive league and a reasonable standard of football."

"We're looking forward to the new season and we're hoping to be a bit stronger than last year."

Three home friendlies have been lined up this month as

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

Davies prepares his squad for the 2011/12 kick off on August 6. Hednesford Town, Rushall Olympic and Chasetown will all visit Coppice Colliery, on July 16, 19 and 21 respectively. Last year's squad has been retained for another term and Davies is chasing up to four new acquisitions, specifically in central midfield, on the flanks and up front.

As well as playing staff, Heath Hayes need new volunteers to help out with match day duties including people to wash kit and work at the tuck shop.

Davies appealed for potential supporters to turn up and get behind the team as the club looks to boost attendances. "It's a family-friendly atmosphere and is relatively cheap compared to the likes of Chasetown and Hednesford," the manager added.

Supporters can pay on the gate for the upcoming friendlies, with the Hednesford game kicking off at 3pm and Rushall and Chasetown starting at 7.45pm.

Anyone willing to volunteer should call 07515 155307.

Local teachers for Local schools from a local teaching agency

Since 2005 Lichfield has been home to ABC Teachers, a supply teaching agency that supplies teachers and teaching staff to local schools, nurseries, Pupil Referral Units and SEN Services across Staffordshire and the West Midlands. 'Nearly all schools will rely on the support of a supply teacher to varying degrees' states Jason Berry who looks after secondary schools in Staffordshire. 'Most local schools had been forced to rely on agencies based in Birmingham or even further afield with little or no knowledge of the local areas'.

'Our aim is simple; we want to work with all of the local supply teachers and all of the local schools. Placing local teachers in local schools means that teachers can get to schools quicker in an emergency. We have found that they also tend to 'Fit in' better because of their knowledge of the catchment area'.

ABC Teachers are certainly heading in the right direction. We have over 1000 registered teachers within 15 miles of our Lichfield office and a client base that includes almost all of the Staffordshire secondary schools south of Stafford. I think you would have to agree that ABC Teachers is well and truly on the Staffordshire map.

ABC Teachers sees it's busiest week during the volcanic ash cloud crisis

When dozens of teachers found themselves stranded abroad due to the ash cloud and the closing of airports, ABC Teachers expected demand for supply staff to go up and prepared themselves for a busy few days assisting schools across the region with their staff shortfalls.

Rachael Tabberer, Education Consultant at ABC Teachers said 'We expected it to be busy but had no idea how busy! We virtually booked out all our teachers and teaching assistants. I think we coped well as we were down two of our own staff here in the office due to the ash cloud.'

Although at the time this was a very stressful situation for all concerned, we were able to assist schools that we hadn't worked with before thus broadening the opportunities for our teachers and teaching staff. According to local press, school closures in the region were minimal and a local Headteacher thanked ABC Teachers for their support saying 'without the supply teachers we booked from you we would have definitely have had to close the school.'

'Rarely cover' policy puts strain on school's in house supply

It is well known within schools that teachers covering for staff absences is not a good use of a teacher's time as it interrupts the time spent on lesson planning and assessment, therefore affecting the lesson on the whole. The Workforce Agreement Monitoring Group (WAMG) and the Local Authority brought in a new policy in September 2009 whereby teachers 'rarely cover' lessons, enabling them to carry out their full role as classroom teachers.

With 'rarely cover' in action it has, at times, proven to put a strain on the schools in house staffing resources and has left schools on a regular basis short of cover for absences and courses. This is where ABC teachers have been able to help by providing a suitable Supply Teacher that is local to the school assuring that they will arrive on time to cover the shortfall of cover teachers.

With this in mind ABC Teacher's are constantly recruiting new teachers and support staff for supply to deal with the demand from our local schools. A supply teacher's role is just as important as the classroom teacher's role and a necessity in most schools across the country to ensure the smooth running of the school and the best education for our children. Since we began, ABC Teachers have year on year effectively and efficiently dealt with the supply needs from many primary, secondary and SEN Schools as well as Pupil Referral Units, Nurseries and SEN Services allowing us to continually keep out teachers and teaching staff in work.

Newly Qualified Teachers receive a helping hand from ABC Teachers

Each year scores of Newly Qualified Teachers fail to land their dream first teaching post. Some have been unlucky in interviews while for others the right opportunity just didn't arise.

As each year goes by ABC Teachers registers more and more NQT's as our success rate and reputation for assisting them in securing a suitable post sky rockets. 'ABC Teachers have had a strong relationship with NQT's since we started in 2005 having secured them posts on a supply, contract and permanent basis in schools, therefore, allowing them to work towards their NQT induction' states Primary Consultant Ashley Cattell. Even in cases where NQT's do not receive work towards their induction; the experience of working on supply can be invaluable. 'The onus is always on the school to provide the NQT support so it is not something we can guarantee. However, working as a supply teacher keeps individuals working within schools, allowing them to view different establishments and keep building on their teaching knowledge. Such experiences will carry them in good stead when applying for future jobs.'

Tips for Supply Teachers

By www.abc-teachers.co.uk

Finding an agency: Choosing the right Teaching Agency for you

1. Recommendations are probably the best place to start. Many teaching agencies will promise you the world but receiving a recommendation from an experienced supply teacher is a good way of ascertaining the best agency to work for.
2. Call a number of agencies and get a feel for the education consultant that covers your specialism and region. This is the person who will be responsible for securing you work, so if you don't think they sound knowledgeable, professional and personable then its safe to assume that the schools will also be wary about trusting the consultant to recruit on behalf of them.
3. Ask the agency what schools they work with regularly. This will enable you to see whether the teaching agency is suitable for your requirements.
4. Be wary of choosing a teaching agency on its size. You will probably be kept busier by an agency with not enough teachers than one with too many.
5. Don't necessarily go with the agency that offers you the most money. A supply teacher's pay will directly affect the amount charged to schools. More and more schools are choosing to pay less for supply teachers and using cover supervisors where possible to keep costs down. In short you may find the agencies paying the most will not necessarily be able to secure the most work. We at ABC Teachers believe we have carefully managed professional rates of pay and competitive charge rates giving you the best of both worlds.

Preparing for your day

6. If you are given a booking in advance try to get to the school in plenty of time. Schools will panic if you are running late and it does not create a good first impression. Equally, as a supply teacher you will benefit from having enough time to settle yourself, ask any questions in regards to your day and familiarise yourself with the discipline procedure before facing your first class. 8.15 is the optimum time to arrive at an assignment, although for last minute bookings this won't always be possible.
7. Try to have a few tricks and ideas up your sleeve in order to keep the class occupied should there be no work set. This will give you valuable time to find out what the class should really be doing whilst retaining their concentration.
8. Your appearance matters. Dress professionally for supply teaching work. This will encourage respect from pupils and help make a good first impression with the school.
9. Plan your route to the school in advance. If you are going to be late contact your teaching agency so that they can inform the school.
10. Keep items you will need each day ready in advance. This means when you are given last minute assignments you are able to leave quickly and get to the school earlier. Things you have ready should include:
 - Clean and ironed clothes
 - Your recent CRB Disclosure and some photographic ID (passport or driving licence)
 - Pens and Pencils should your pupils have forgotten theirs
 - Some back up schemes of work (as mentioned above)
 - An A-to-Z or, if you are part of the technical age, a Sat Nav
 - Consider taking a bag with sports kit in case you are asked to cover PE

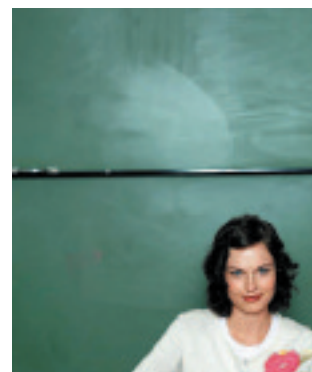

Maximising your work

11. If you have not received a booking prior to the morning, call your teaching agency first thing and inform them you are up, ready and available for work. In the morning your consultant will contact people they know can get to the school with minimum fuss.
12. If you go to a school you like, let the school know you are available for other assignments in the future. You may find that you are requested by name in the future.
13. Be flexible. The more flexible you are the more opportunities you are likely to receive.
14. While you never use your mobile phone in class or in front of your pupils, do check your phone during breaks for texts and voice mails from your teaching agency which may have details of further assignments.
15. Be speedy in the morning. If you can be seen as a person who can leave and get to schools with minimal fuss the agency will automatically see you as an obvious choice for bookings.

Classroom management strategies

16. One of the main issues with supply teachers is a lack of enthusiasm for the role. Stay enthusiastic for the position. Keep working and never give up on the class and let it rule you. Utilize do's and don'ts below and things will become easier.
17. Avoid shouting if possible. It can give the impression that you have lost control, making it difficult to regain it.
18. At the start of lesson set clear expectations of the class.
19. Do not be afraid to accept support. Even the best teachers will have days when support can help.
20. Take the time to get to know the names of the pupils in the class.
21. If you are at the school for a longer period devise a seating plan to keep disruptive groups forming.
22. Know the names of each individual head of year and then use them when addressing behaviour issues.
23. Use positive praise of good behaviour to avoid allowing negative behaviour to gain all the attention.
24. Do not highlight you are in the school on a short-term basis. This gives pupils the impression that they do not need to be concerned about you in the long term.
25. By following the regular pattern of discipline, pupils know where they stand so try to know the school behaviour management system.
26. Ask for the school's behaviour management policy at the start of the day.
